

NO MID TOWN THIS WEEK

Support the "Highland Ball" sponsored by the Lions Club for the Girls' Pipe Band

One of the most moving events depicted in Cecil B. DeMille's Production, "The Ten Commandments," opening Nov. 28th at the Roxy Theatre, Acton, is the Lord's Passover. In the reverent scene above, Moses, portrayed by Charlton Heston, and followers John Derek, Olive Deering, John Carradine, and Julia Faye partake of their last meal in bondage before the Exodus.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Tomkinson and family of Barrie with the John Gilmores for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lane of Toronto with Mrs. Lane on Sunday.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John Byers on the arrival of a little son on Nov. 12th.

The Karns spent the week-end with relatives at London.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Patterson visited her father, Mr. Gilbert Sinclair, who is in the General Hospital in Hamilton on Sunday.

Joy Patterson spent the week-end with her cousin, Marilyn Patterson at Rockwood.

At the annual Limehouse Memorial Hall community meeting on Monday evening, Mr. Ed Findlay was appointed to replace a retiring member of the Hall board.

The W.I. held a successful bazaar in the Hall on Saturday, Jacqueline Crichton won a crochet flower basket in a draw. Prize winners at the euchre following were Mrs. R. L. Davidson and Joe McDonald and seconds went to Miss Edith Thompson and R. L. Davidson, who won in a draw with Chas. Meredith.

The WMS met at the home of Mrs. Roughley on Thursday evening following the theme of "Remembrance." Two minutes of silence were observed in memory of those who gave their lives in two world wars and in Korea. Scripture read by Mrs. Benton was followed by prayer by Mrs. Gisby. Mrs. Roughley obliged with a piano solo and Mrs. Kirkpatrick read an interesting account of Dr. Schweitzer's life. Text word "nation" was answered by a verse of Scripture.

Following the Lord's Prayer in unison at the close the hostess served refreshments.
