Father Was Pioneer Toronto Businessman

A Toronto native whose father was one of the early city merchants, Mrs. E. Brant Swackhamer, 73, died at Guelph General Hospital on Friday. She had been in hospital since suffering a severe stroke the previous Tuesday morning.

She was the former Florence Startup, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John David Startup. Her father came to the city from England in the 1860's, and for many years operated a furniture and hardware store on Yonge Street north of Bloor in what was then known as Yorkville.

Following their marriage, 47 years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Swackhamer lived in the city, then for a few years in St. Thomas. They returned to Toronto and lived there and in Islington until moving to Georgetown in 1934. They operated a farm and market garden on what is now the Orr subdivision, living in the present John Frost home. In 1943 they built their home at 35 Charles Street.

Mrs. Swackhamer was musical. As a girl she played the piano in a family orchestra in the city. She sang in St. John's United Church choir for several years, and was a member of the old Georgetown Choral Society. She belonged to the Woman's Association at St. John's and to Georgetown Horticultural Society.

She leaves her husband, one son Armand of Ottawa and one grandson Jim. She was predeceased by a brother and sister, Bertram Startup and Mrs. Charlotte Madden.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane conducted the funeral service on Monday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home. Pallbearers were Graham Marshall, Robert Harris, Harold Watson and Ernest Forgrave. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

BALLINAFAD

Family Party, Visitors Returning to Holland

A family gathering and party on Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnt Jongejan brought to an end a 7 month visit in Canada for Mrs. A. A. Jongejan and her daughter Miss J. Jongejan of Wieringermeer, Holland. They arrived in Canada in May and have spent the time divided among two daughters, one in Georgetown and the other in Acton, and with her son here in Ballinafad. Miss Jongejan picked up quite a bit of the English language and travelled around Ontario with friends, taking pictures of some of the outstanding places, such as Niagara Falls and the botanical gardens in Hamilton. Coming from a land of many beautiful flowers they thought this a most interesting place. They left Hamilton by train on Friday night and would be sailing from New York on Saturday.

The Mission Band met for their November meeting in the church basement on Sunday morning with 25 members and visitors present. Five children took part in a pre-Christmas worship service which included the lighting of the Advent candle and some Christmas records were played. The roll call was answered with the collection of pencils for children in Korea and Mrs. C. Snow read the third chapters of the missionary book which was about Labrador.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Mike Norton on the sudden passing away of his father in Georgetown last Thursday morning. His sister, Miss Joan Norton a nurse in Vancouver flew home for the funeral, and will remain here for a visit with her mother and younger brother David. Mr. Norton leaves on Wednesday on a trip sponsored by the Case company down through the States and to Nassau in the Bahamas.

Another well known resident of this district, Mrs. R. Evans who lived on the fifth line was buried in Streetsville on Monday afternoon from the Rumley funeral home in Acton. The sympathy of the community is extended to relatives and friends.
