Ed. Burke, Norval is Scout Committee Head

Ken Foster was chairman at the annual district group committee meeting held recently at St. John's United Church, where representatives from seven committees including three local groups met to discuss scouting methods and any problems which had arisen during the year.

Field commissioner R. Gardner was the primary speaker and gave a brief report recognizing the work of the committees and forecasting a bright future for all represented. The district commissioner Dave Dills also reported briefly to the assembly.

Ed. Burke of Norval was elected to the chair for the following year during the election of officers. Gordon Hills of Glen Williams is vice-chairman and the secretary is Mrs. Jean James. Coffee and donuts were served following the meeting.

District Students Among Acton, Milton Graduates

Recent commencement exercises at Milton and Acton high schools featured many names familiar to local and district residents.

At Acton, Miss Beth McEnery, a member of Stewarttown school teaching staff, was valedictorian and those receiving honour graduation diplomas included Helen Landsborough, whose father is well-known locally through long years as a handsman with the Lorne Scots. Her sister Ruth received a secondary school graduation diploma, as did Michael Hurst, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hale of town. Several students from the Limehouse and Ballinafad areas received intermediate certificates, these including Trudy Scott, Shirley Spiece, Irene Valey, Ross Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Austin, was one of eleven receiving graduation certificates at Milton. Ausma Verlis and Marilyn Wilson were among those who received Grade 10 certificates.
