NAME MRS. BELLBOODY
MISSION GROUP PRESIDENT

Oh, how very bare the trees are.
The sky grows steadily and the earth becomes cold. Our world will soon be white with the falling snow and then winter will have come to stay.

The Christmas meeting of the WMS was held on Thursday afternoon, December 4th at the home of Mrs. George Nurse with a splendid attendance of ladies. 1st vice president, Mrs. John Bellboody opened with a Christmas message and the hymn "Gentle Mary Laid Her Child." Secretary Mrs. Clayton Wilson read the minutes of the November meeting and called the Roll which was answered with a thought or verse on the birth of Christ. The secretaries of the different depts. gave their reports and all were very gratifying and showed a very successful year, also we went over our allocation.
A lovely Christmas devotional was given by Mrs. Frank Wilson which included the grand Christmas hymns. She was assisted by Mrs.
C. B. Dick and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell and sweet Christmas solos by Karen Bridgen. Prayer for chosen missionary was given by Mrs.
John Bellboody, after which Mrs.
Wilfrid Bird presented the nominating committee report and the new officers for 1959 are president, Mrs. John Bellboody; 1st vice, Mrs. W. Bird; secretary, Mrs.
Ceil Wilson; assistant, Mrs. Clayton Wilson; treasurer, Mrs. Hector Bird; literature secretary, Mrs.
Frank Wilson; stewardship secretary, Mrs. J. M. Wickson; Community Friendship, Mrs. Harvey Nurse; Supply, Mrs. Frank Ruddell; Citizenship, Mrs. Thos. Gif-fen; Associate Helpers, Mrs. Ward Brownridge; Missionary Monthly and World Friends, Mrs. Bruce Bridgen; Mission Band, Mrs. Murray Bridgen; assistant, Mrs. Jas.
Carney; Baby Band, Mrs. Bruce McClure; pianist, Mrs. Thomas Brownridge; auditors, Mrs. Frank Wilson, and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell.
The Bright Star Mission Band met on Sunday afternoon at the home of Janice Cox, for their Christmas meeting with thirteen children and five adults present.
Karen Bridgen read the minutes, Margaret Brownridge played a piano solo. Robbie Bridgen sang "Away in a Manger" accompanied by his sister Karen. Mrs. Fred Nurse told the story. Some Christmas hymns were sung and the collection was taken up by Murray Brownridge and Donald Mc-Clure and dedicated by Robert Bridgen. Thelma Carney closed the meeting with prayer.

LOCAL CGIT JOINS IN CHRISTMAS SERVICE

In big city churches and in small centres too, this month, groups of teenage girls are getting ready for the annual Christmas vesper service of the Canadian Girls in Training. It is a service which has become a symbol of the national strength and unity of the CGIT Movement.

Groups everywhere in all the ten provinces will take part in this rededication to the ideals and purposes of the movement. Dressed in the white middies and the navy skirts of the CGIT uniform, the girls will sing the familiar Christmas hymns and join in the readings and prayers.

In most churches, the climax of the service comes with the lighting of three candles to symbolize the meaning of the CGIT purpose.
Sometimes the processional is also in candlelight. Many groups are assisted by a choir with special Christmas music, and some, have a speaker.

But all of them follow the same order of service which is prepared by the National CGIT committee to give thousands of members this opportunity of worshipping together during the Christmas season.
Canadian Girls in Training is an interdenominational movement under the Canadian Council of Churches. Its activities are many and varied, but its chief purpose is to present the Christian way of life to teen-age girls.

The Christmas vesper service is not for members alone. In every community where this beautiful service will be held, the public is invited to attend and take part.
In Georgetown, it will be held this Sunday at 7 p.m. in St. John's United Church, with the C.G.I.T. girls of the church conducting the service.

CLUB MIDTOWN

by "Dar" Hi gang, The Midnitters were in top form Friday night as they rocked out the music. The crowd was a good one and we really enjoyed ourselves.

In just two weeks, we will be holding our big Xmas dance. It is NOT formal or semi-formal.

As I mentioned before, Jack Train and the Manhattan will be there. The Midnitters will also pay us a visit. Don't forget Friday, Dec. 19th for a really wonderful time.

My pick hit this week is by Jack Scott and it is called "Bye Bye, Baby."

Well, that's it for another week.
Don't forget Midtown this Friday when we'll be rockin' once more, to records...

LAW FIRM CHRISTMAS PARTY AT OLD MILL

and Mrs. Jack Armstrong entertained at their home on Parkview Blvd. prior to leaving for the city. The party of thirty people included Mr. and Mrs. John Ord, Mr. and Mrs. George C. Hewson, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helson, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Suddaby, Mr. and Mrs. Logan Macdonald, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Meldrum, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Fiebig, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pope, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hansen, Barry Timleck and Sandra Bradley, Bill McLean and Jean Penrice.

Seniors attended a party in the evening, when the same films were again shown, and skits were presented by the classes of Mrs. S. H. Phillips and Mrs. Eric Timms. Heather Meades accompanied her sister Rosemary who sang a Christmas carol; there was a piano solo by Ann Lorraine Noble; and a vocal trio, Mary McClintock, Carol Ann Barber and Ellen Biehn. Roy Cock played accordion accompaniment for carol singing and after candy was distributed, there was a short period of dancing. Douglas Meades, Sunday School superintendent was chairman for both concerts, and Rev. Kenneth Richardson spoke briefly at each. The junior choir sang a carol in the evening. Remembering that Christmas is a time for giving, children attending the concerts brought gifts, and it was decided to send them to Springhill, N.S., to brighten the holiday for children who lost their fathers in the mine disaster.

Anglican Church School Double-Header Concert

The Christmas party for children of St. George's Anglican Sunday School was divided this year, because of limited accommodation in the parish hall.

On Saturday afternoon, the junior members were treated to entertainment by the Maxwells, magicians from Hamilton, a cartoon movie and one which told the Christmas story. The beginners class sang two numbers and Santa made his appearance to distribute gifts to the younger members, candy and oranges.

Sincere Thanks

AFTER SERVING THE TOWN OF GEORGETOWN for so many years as councillor, it is gratifying to know that the ratepayers still have the same confidence in me.

May you have very pleasant holiday season.
