+ KID HOCKEY +

The kid hockey last Saturday morning saw an excellent group of youngsters out trying to learn the rudiments of our national pastime in winter, and by the keenness of the youngsters, and the careful guidance of those who are in charge, the day may come soon when the ranks of kid hockey in Georgetown will produce another all time great like Bob Goldham. The schedule for next Saturday is printed below, along with the results of last Saturday's games. A few hours of your time any Saturday morning will be a wonderful experience for any adult who has not been down there this season.
