

THE GEORGETOWN HERALD

TEN PAGES - 10c PER COPY

Authorized 5c Second Class Mail Post Office Dept., Ottawa

GEORGETOWN, ONTARIO, WEDNESDAY EVENING, JAN. 7, 1959

Fire Chief Jack Harlow Returned, Third Term

Jack Harlow has been chosen chief of the Georgetown fire department for the 3rd straight year.

Chief Harlow was returned to the position on Sunday when the brigade held their annual meeting at the fire hall on Guelph Street, attended by representatives from Georgetown and Esquesing township council as well as a former fireman, Fred Armstrong, Industry and Chamber of Commerce representative Jack Crichton of the Alliance paper mills, Art Scott and Alf Perrott.

Mayor Jack Armstrong and councillors Garfield McGilvray, John Elliott, and Ern Hyde attended from the local council and George Leslie, Wilfred Bird and Cam Sinclair from the Esquesing council. Mayor Armstrong chaired the meeting, and member of the fire committee John Elliott acted as secretary. Two former chiefs, Harry Savings and Henry Shepherd acted as scrutineers.

Mayor Armstrong and councillors conveyed the town and township's sentiments in complimenting the department not only for their fire fighting duties but for their aid with community activities including the Santa Claus parade.

Bob Bonfield was elected to Deputy chief, the position vacated by Andy Ritchie who retired from the executive, C. Spence is secretary, Judd Davidson is treasurer; Jim Valentine, Capt. No. 1; Dave Williams, Capt. No. 2; Jack Cunningham, Lieut. No. 1; Clarence Carey, Lieut. No. 2; Capt. Hook and Ladder, Jack Kerr; Truck Driver, No. 1, Bill Ritchie; Truck Driver, No. 2, Harold Bennett who takes over from Ralph Bludd; Panel Truck Driver, Chuck Laws; and Township Truck Driver, Herb Roshier.

Other members of the brigade include William Hyde, Andy Ritchie, George Chaplin, Walter Richardson, Wilfred Breen, Charles Hill, Chuck Tyler, Ace Bailey, Gordon Inglis and Art Stamp.

STEWARTTOWN

PRESENTATION RECOGNIZES PUBLIC SCHOOL STANDING

A very enjoyable meeting and Christmas party of Esquesing W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Lawson on Thursday, December 11th. There was a good turnout of members and several visitors. A donation of money was made to fire victims. Mrs. Walter Lawson was elected to the Esquesing community hall committee and Greta Koeslag was presented with a leather wallet from the Women's Institute in recognition of her high standing in Grade 8 in public school.

Arrangements were made for Xmas cards and boxes of fruit to be sent to a number of shut-ins and sick folks. After the business of the meeting Susan Smith and Ruth Atkinson entertained with duets accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Reg Williams who also played instrumental and Christmas carols to which all joined in singing.

Christmas gifts were exchanged among the members and gifts were given those who supplied the program and to the visitors. The Lord's Prayer closed the meeting and lunch was served by the committee.

Congratulations are extended to our public school principal and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gibbons on the arrival of a baby boy. We are pleased to see that Herb Reid is recovering sufficiently to be out again after his illness and time spent in Guelph General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sanford spent Christmas holidays with the Mitchells in Limehouse.

Ted Baily was in the village Friday visiting with his mother, Mrs. Mary Baily.

The death occurred recently of Howard Bescoy of Gravenhurst. He was the son of the late Mr. William Bescoy who lived for a number of years in Stewarttown and previous to that on the check line on the farm now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Atkinson.

ENGAGEMENT

Mr. and Mrs. William Hill, 91 Street East, announce the engagement of their daughter, Arlene Louise to Hank Mulder, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. K. Mulder, 75 Market Street. The wedding will take place the latter part of January.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gough, St. Catharines, announce the engagement of their daughter Violet Ann to Ross Norton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Norton, Limehouse, the wedding to take place in Acton in the Methodist Church on Saturday, January 10th, 1959, at 3 p.m.

New Rectory Now Occupied By St. Alban's Minister

The new rectory, pictured when it was nearing completion, makes a handsome addition to St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams.

Rev. and Mrs. John Rathbone and their family moved into their new home in time to spend Christmas there. The house contains living, dining, kitchen, washroom, bedroom and study on the ground floor and two bedrooms and bath upstairs. Care was taken in selecting materials to match the church, to which it is hoped to join the rectory by a cloister and eventually to build a new parish hall. The brick is sandstone grey and the front half nearest the church is cut stone. Hawes and Nelson were general contractors. The building committee was under chairmanship of Roland Haines and the men of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. John Rathbone.

The house contains living, dining, kitchen, washroom, bedroom and study on the ground floor and two bedrooms and bath upstairs. Care was taken in selecting materials to match the church, to which it is hoped to join the rectory by a cloister and eventually to build a new parish hall. The brick is sandstone grey and the front half nearest the church is cut stone. Hawes and Nelson were general contractors. The building committee was under chairmanship of Roland Haines and the men of the Brotherhood of Anglican Churchmen under the leadership of Rev. and Mrs. John Rathbone.

Toronto Businessman Leaves Brother Here

Aston C. (Bus) Salter, brother of Ray Salter, 32 Maple Avenue W., died suddenly on Wednesday, Dec. 31st in St. Michael's Hospital, in Toronto. He was forty-five years of age. Mr. Salter was born in Toronto the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Salter who survive him. Having lived all his life in Toronto he attended school there and at the time of his death operated a business of his own which manufactured drapery tracks.

Mr. Salter was a keen member of the Royal Canadian Yacht Club and the Kennel Club. He is survived by his wife the former Marjorie Mack, and their son William, a brother Ramsey of Georgetown, and a sister Mrs. George Cross of Toronto.

The rector of St. Aiden's Anglican Church conducted the funeral service in the chapel of Austin J. Mack Funeral Home, 1896 Queen Street East on Saturday, January 3rd. Interment was in Rest Haven Memorial Gardens.

SAFETY THEME FOR NEXT HOME & SCHOOL MEETING

A close to capacity crowd is expected in Wrigglesworth auditorium on Monday, January 12 where a panel moderated by Hydro Commission chairman E. W. Binkley will deal with every phase of safety in the community when they survey the topic "Safety in the Home, School, Industry and on the Highway."

Sponsored by the Wrigglesworth Home & School Association, the evening will bring together on the discussion panel, fire chief Jack Harlow, lawyer Doug Latimer, ambulance chief Ed Hall, safety supervisor at Smith & Stone Bob McMenemy, safety director at Swift's, Harold Seckington, Bell Telephone district manager Lloyd Denby, a Canadian National Railways inspector yet to be named and local traffic officer Cst. Ted Scott. Admission is free and the program will start at 8 p.m.

Two color films, Charlie's Hunt and Youth-Driving Ninety Horses, donated by the Bell Telephone Company will also be shown. Georgetown has just completed its second fatality-free year in a row and it is hoped that the panel discussion will make the population even more safety conscious in 1959.

SCHOOL STAFF SEES PICTURES OF EUROPE

Mrs. James F. Evans, who with her husband enjoyed a trip to Europe last summer, entertained members of the Chapel St. public school staff with pictures taken during the trip at a Christmas party prior to holiday closing. The staff exchanged gifts, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Jack Thompson and Mrs. David Hobbs, during the pleasant staff

Parks Board Member Bowling Enthusiast

William George Bell, a resident of Georgetown for the past twenty-three years, died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on Sunday, January 4. Mr. Bell who was in his seventy-fifth year, was born in Lindsay, the son of Laura Alice Nicole Bell and James Bell. He lived in Lindsay until he was sixteen moving to Toronto where he lived until coming to Georgetown. He was educated in Lindsay and Toronto.

Prior to moving to Georgetown where he operated Georgetown Bell Fabric Company in Toronto. He married Amy Jane Bailey on December 12th, fifty one years ago and she survives him as do their two children, Laura, Mrs. Harry Moss, 12 Ostrander Blvd., and Leonard James of Cadillac, Michigan. One brother Charles Joseph of Lindsay and three grandchildren are also left.

Mr. Bell was very interested and active in community life being one of the original members of the Board of Parks management, when it was formed. He was an honorary member of the Curling Club and an ardent lawn bowler. He was also a member of Silver's five pin bowling team. He was a past master of Britannia L.O.L., Toronto.

Rev. Alex Calder conducted the funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home, 34 Edith Street, on Tuesday, January 6th, at 2 p.m. Pallbearers were Denis Bell, his grandson, Earl Walters, Harry Cross, Frank Cluskey, Ed Wilson and Granville Henderson. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Tells Town History To Home & School

Mayor Jack Armstrong was the guest speaker at the January meeting of Chapel Street Home and School Association held Monday evening at the school and he spoke on the history of Georgetown from its first settlers. Directing his talk to the newcomers, Mayor Armstrong listed a number of the town's landmarks and early pioneers.

A tape recording of the Christmas music sung by the Chapel St. pupils over the amplifier at St. John's United Church was played by kindergarten teacher, Mrs. Ernest Smith and two solos were sung by Mrs. George Grasby, The Old Fashioned Town and Little Irish Girl.

W. A. Lavoie Former Textile Manufacturer

W. A. Lavoie, a former manufacturer of knitted goods in Georgetown died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Peterborough, on December 29th. He had been in ill health for some time, retiring from business eight years ago.

Mr. Lavoie is survived by his wife Louise and two sons Lawrence of Peterborough and Wilfred, 26 Henry St., Georgetown, eleven grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Funeral service was conducted from Lane's Funeral Parlours, Peterborough on New Year's Day. Interment was in Peterborough Cemetery.

Mrs. T. Van Sickle Heads Church Group

Mrs. Thomas Van Sickle became the new president of the Daughters of the Church when Rev. Kenneth R. Richardson formally installed the 1959 executive, on Monday evening at St. George's Anglican. Officers assisting Mrs. Van Sickle are Mrs. Thomas Easton, 1st vice president; Mrs. Alan Thompson, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Ron Ovenden, secretary; Mrs. Stewart Phillips, treasurer; Mrs. Walter Biehn, flower fund and press convener; Mrs. William McNally, Mrs. Stan Finlay and Mrs. Gordon Tee, group conveners; Mrs. Don Wingo, social convener, Mrs. R. Ovenden, membership convener.

An inspirational talk by Mr. Richardson followed the installation of officers, after which Mrs. Van Sickle accepted the presidential gavel from the retiring president, Mrs. Larry Maughan.

Items of business discussed included the drawing up of a list of aims and objectives for the organization for the coming year. This will be done at the next meeting. Mrs. Thomas Easton invited the Daughters to meet at her home for a "Valentine Meeting" in February, to which each member is asked to bring a prospective new member. Plans were made to give a noon luncheon to the clergy of the Halton Deanery, who meet at St. George's on Tuesday,

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Mr. S. E. Chamberlain of Winnipeg is visiting in town with his son and family, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Chamberlain, 5 Market Street.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack S. Buchanan and Bette Buchanan of Windsor were holiday visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buchanan, 32 Windsor Road.

With Mr. and Mrs. Neij Pattullo, 59 Hewson Cres., for the holidays were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall and their children Jerry and Judy of Walpole Island.

William Pacholok, 33 Edward Street, with his brother Joseph Pacholok of New Toronto, motor west to spend the holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Pacholok, in Ethelbert, Manitoba.

Miss Helen Devereaux, of MacDonald College, St. Anne de Bellevue, has returned to the college after spending the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Devereaux, 9 Parkview Blvd.

Miss Thelma Hunter has returned to her position on the staff of Quinte High School, Belleville, after spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Hunter, 17 Valleyview Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Petch, 30 Chapel Street East, and Mr. and Mrs. Ross McClellan, Stratford, attended the funeral of Mrs. Munro, Sr., in Parkhill last Wednesday. Mr. Milo Munro and Linda returning with them to Stratford for a few days.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane officiated at the baptismal service on Sunday, December 28th at 11 a.m. when Brian Karl Lang, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerhard Lang, 109 Main Street North and Diane Susan Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Porter, Norton Crescent, were baptized.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pratt and daughter Anita, 14 McIntyre Cres., spoke by transatlantic telephone on Christmas morning with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Pratt, Southampton, England. They hope to come to Canada for a visit later this year.

Relatives from Windsor visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenner, 49 Charles St., for the New Year holiday. They included her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Leigh, her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Leigh, Billy, Johnny and Mary Elizabeth.

Mrs. Ross Secord and Donna, 30 Shelley Street, flew to Windsor to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Al Woltz. Sgt. and Mrs. Ted Woltz, Wayne and Kristine of Winnipeg are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Secord at present. Sgt. Woltz coming east to take a special course at Camp Borden with the RCAMC.

Mrs. J. F. Gillis, 19 King St. W. had Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gillis and daughter Karen of Peterborough home for Christmas. She returned with them for a few days and they visited at Merrittton with Mrs. Gillis' son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Jack Munro and with Mrs. Stanley O'Brien. Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gillis entertained members of the Spitzer family for New Year's, including Mr. and Mrs. August Spitzer, Miss Eleanor Spitzer and Mr. Gerry Inglis from town and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Ewen and daughter Carolyn of Norval.

Janice Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Brown, 11 Parkview, celebrated her sixth birthday at her home on Tuesday, Dec. 30th. Her guests included Janie and Edward Reader, Bobby Runham, Paul Sanderson, Kathy and Patty Lince, Fraser Guffin, Patricia Burke, Chris Goodfellow, David Mathies, Hughie Williams, Barbara Inglis and her brother, Jeffrey. Her grandmother, Mrs. G. Needham of Norval was also at the party and refreshments and games were arranged by Jill Runham and Judy Nash.

A family Christmas luncheon and tea was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, King St. Their children Mary Jane and William John welcomed the aunts and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Hutchinson and family, Listowel, Mrs. William and William J. Hutchinson, Cheltenham, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Mosley, Toronto, Miss Mary McClure, Preston, Misses Islay and Agnes McClure, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Arnott, of Streetsville.

With Mr. and Mrs. Ern Hyde, 24 Ewing Street, New Year's Eve, were Mr. and Mrs. Stan Finlay, Barbara and Johnny, 17 Durham Street, Mrs. Helen Humberstone, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Humberstone and Anne and Tommy, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson, Harry and Brenda, Rosemary, Peggy Anne and Ginny, Hornby, Donald Humberstone and his daughter, Terry of Orangeville. Mrs. Don Humberstone was in hospital New Year's Eve where she gave birth to a baby boy.

Local Relatives Join 98th Birthday Party

A gala birthday party on Christmas Day marked the birthday of 98-year-old Thomas Ross, born at Langside in Bruce County in 1861.

Thirty five relatives attended the party in Rexdale, including a grandson, R. W. Murray, 22 Norton Cres. and granddaughter, Mrs. C. V. Waldorf, 22 Elizabeth Street. Mr. and Mrs. Murray also had their children, Lynne, Leslie and Robbie with them; and besides Mr. and Mrs. Waldorf were their children, Dr. Vern Waldorf, from Texas, F. L. and Mrs. Paul Waldorf, Trenton, Misses Jean and Mary Waldorf, Toronto. A picture of Mr. Ross, blowing out the candles on his cake, with some of his ten great grandchildren looking on, appeared in the Toronto Telegram.

The Bruce County farm, home, owned by his father, is still in the

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emery of Utica, N.Y., are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Boyle, 21 Parkview.

Mrs. Clare Reith, Clare and Bobby, of Seaford, were with Mrs. Edward Hill, 7 Guelph St., and family over the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boyd, 20 Maple Avenue West, Chris and Tony, spent a delightful New Year's holiday at Tally-Ho Lodge, Huntsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold A. Glenn of Toronto were with her sister and brother-in-law for Christmas, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Carcaud, 21 Balfour Crescent.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Perego, 18 Elizabeth St., went to Montreal for Christmas where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cherette and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Perego.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Powers, Linda and Murray, 144 Rexway Drive were holiday guests in Thamesville with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Powers.

Mrs. John McClure, King Street and Mrs. Delbert Arnott, Streetsville were Boxing Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Mosley, Toronto, when they attended the Todd-A-O production of South Pacific.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Macdonald, Joyce and Ross, 9 McNabb Street, visited in Woodbridge on Sunday, January 4th with Mr. and Mrs. Bertram Lynd and family. With the Macdonalds for Christmas and New Year were her father, Mr. Thomas Pierce of Brussels.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Millere and son Paul, 12 Wesleyan St., joined a family party in Mount Forest at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Millere, Sr., for Christmas. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Spence McKinnon and children Bob and Barbara of Cornwall.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. T. Sinclair, 55 Charles St. and Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Sinclair and son Carl, Limehouse, were among the guests when Mrs. Margaret Lang, Orangeville, entertained members of the Sinclair family at a New Year's dinner. The party was held at the Shanon-Ru in Orangeville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Narey of 85 McIntyre Crescent were thrilled last Sunday when they received a trans-Atlantic phone call from the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McCallum in Glasgow, Scotland. Mrs. Narey's sister, Mrs. David Mackenzie and her husband also spoke from Glasgow. It was a wonderful reunion. "The reception was so clear it was like talking to a neighbour," said Mrs. Narey.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Rex Heslop and family, Heslop Court, are her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Hurp Tribble of Englehart. Mr. Heslop's sister and her husband Mr. and Mrs. R. Steinback of Hollywood, California, his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Heslop, London, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kennedy, his sister of Orono and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Southcott of Toronto also visited over the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Costigan, 55 John St. E., were with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Reid, Robert and Susan, of Gravel Station over the holidays. At the Reids for Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Costigan were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Costigan, Jr., 29 Market St.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim McCaig, 37 Maple Ave. W., Mr. and Mrs. Jim Robb of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Herb Sinclair and son Danny of Hamilton.

A family Christmas luncheon and tea was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, King St. Their children Mary Jane and William John welcomed the aunts and cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clare Hutchinson and family, Listowel, Mrs. William and William J. Hutchinson, Cheltenham, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Mosley, Toronto, Miss Mary McClure, Preston, Misses Islay and Agnes McClure, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Arnott, of Streetsville.

With Mr. and Mrs. Ern Hyde, 24 Ewing Street, New Year's Eve, were Mr. and Mrs. Stan Finlay, Barbara and Johnny, 17 Durham Street, Mrs. Helen Humberstone, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Humberstone and Anne and Tommy, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson, Harry and Brenda, Rosemary, Peggy Anne and Ginny, Hornby, Donald Humberstone and his daughter, Terry of Orangeville. Mrs. Don Humberstone was in hospital New Year's Eve where she gave birth to a baby boy.

With Mr. and Mrs. Ern Hyde, 24 Ewing Street, New Year's Eve, were Mr. and Mrs. Stan Finlay, Barbara and Johnny, 17 Durham Street, Mrs. Helen Humberstone, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Humberstone and Anne and Tommy, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robertson, Harry and Brenda, Rosemary, Peggy Anne and Ginny, Hornby, Donald Humberstone and his daughter, Terry of Orangeville. Mrs. Don Humberstone was in hospital New Year's Eve where she gave birth to a baby boy.