

Choose Officers for St. George's A.Y.P.A.

Recently young people of St. George's Anglican Church formed two groups to meet the needs of their respective age range and abilities.

The A.Y.P.A. (an older teen age group) which meet on Wednesday evenings at 7.15 p.m. in the club rooms elected Fred Harrison as president, Karen Norton, secretary, and Danny Edwards, treasurer. The program committee consists of Catherine Smith, Carol Francis, Christina, Marahment and Betty Hole. Paul Thompson is the director.

The Anglican Youth Fellowship (a younger teen age group) meet on Sunday afternoon at 2.30 p.m. for religious study and activity. At the Advent session the election was held and the following form the executive for 1959. Ole Poulstrup; vice president, Sylvia Ellis; secretary, Jenny Burley; treasurer, Larry Saunders, program chairman, Michael Payne. On Saturday, January 10th, a hamburger fry was held in the club rooms, in the form of a birthday party for the rector, Rev. Kenneth Richardson, and the group, then adjourned to the local arena for a skating party.

CHURCH LADIES SEE PICTURES OF EUROPE

Miss Darlene Leslie won a chicken in a lucky draw at the hockey game at Milton area on Friday evening.

Rev. John Hill returned to his home Friday evening, after spending a few days in Milton Private Hospital.

Mr. Alfred Bridgen, Gordon Barnes and Les King, George and William Bailey took their fish hats up to Lake Simcoe over the weekend.

The evening W.A. held their first meeting of the year in the Hornby-United Church basement hall on Monday evening, January 5th. The meeting opened with the theme song, with the new president Mrs. Harold Learmont presiding. The minutes and the treasurer's report were given. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Orville Greston introduced Miss Beatrice Greston of Port Credit, who showed some very interesting pictures of her trip to Europe last summer. Mrs. Coulton thanked her on behalf of the group. A delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Harold Learmont.

The afternoon W.A. of Hornby United Church held their January meeting at the home of Mrs. Lew Sampson.

Mrs. Doug Leslie presided over the meeting. The theme song was sung and the Lord's prayer repeated by all. The secretary treasurer read the minutes and gave the treasurer's report. The annual reports for the year were given, and the auditors declared the treasurer's report correct. It was decided to turn one hundred dollars over to the treasurer of the general group. A bazaar for the coming year was discussed to great length. A prayer closed the meeting.

Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Coulton assisted the hostess to serve lunch. The Hornby hockey team, coached by Garnet Howden played hockey against Erin in Erin on Saturday night and lost six to five.

—Orangeville plays the Realtors Friday at the arena.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD BY UNITED CHURCH

The first meeting of the year of the Institute was at Mrs. M. Baker's on Wednesday afternoon with 14 members answering the roll call by telling about a custom of another country they like. Mrs. Frank Smith, citizenship convener was in charge of the program and she and Mrs. E. McEnery both read an article on citizenship. There was the usual business session and plans were made for a short course to be held in the near future on "the third meal" with Mrs. J. W. Snow and Mrs. F. Smith as leaders. Mrs. E. McEnery had the motto which was "Responsibilities of Citizenship do not end with tax paying." Current events were prepared by Mrs. C. E. Snow and were read by Mrs. N. Sinclair. A contest on baking tea biscuits was won by the president, Mrs. J. McEnery and the biscuits that were brought in were later sold with the proceeds going to the welfare fund. The

SERVERS GUILD ELECTS OFFICERS

Rev. Kenneth and Mrs. Richardson assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Evis were hosts to the Servers Guild of St. George's for their annual meeting, held on Sunday. Following a delicious turkey banquet which was also a combined birthday celebration for the rector, the members elected their officers for 1959. The Director is the rector, assisted by Mr. Evis. Secretary Robert Salter, Robertmaster William Wilson, treasurer, Robert Evis. The membership totals thirteen active members and eight honorary members. Two of the membership are now serving in the armed forces of Canada.

Following the supper five probationers were installed into full membership at the service of Evensong. Robert Evis, John Knight, David Norton, Robert Salter and William Wilson.

COUNCIL-THURSDAY

First business meeting of the 1959 Georgetown council will take place tomorrow night in the council chambers.

Appointment of committees was the only business transacted at Monday's inaugural meeting.
