

Muskrat Unusual Visitor To Ewing Street House

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Coffell, 46-Ewing St., had an unusual visitor last week — a muskrat which took a fancy to the basement window well and proceeded to make a nest.

The Coffells surmised that the animal happened up from the creek below their house, and perhaps got into the well and couldn't quite make it out again. He was first observed when Mrs. Coffell was doing her washing in the basement.

The muskrat had chewed plastic stormproofing off the window, ripped the wooden frame and was burrowing a hole in the earth. He seemed to be hungry and some apple, bread, carrots and lettuce were placed for his meals during his four-day stay.

Fearing damage to the house, however, and not chancing a nip from sharp teeth, the Coffells decided to place boards from ground level to his burrow, and he has since disappeared, probably returning to his natural habitat in the river flats.

Valentine Wishing Well Attractive Dance Decor

Featuring beautiful Valentine decorations, the annual dance sponsored by Countess of Strathmore Chapter, IOOE, on Friday, in the arena Rose Room was a highlight in a long list of successful affairs conducted by the chapter.

The decorating scheme featured a "wishing well" in the centre of the hall, artfully contrived to simulate a pillar from ceiling to floor, and with a large red heart revolving slowly in a spotlight. Red bulbs had been placed in all the overhead lights and heart and cupid cutouts decorated the walls.

Guests were met at the door by the regent, Mrs. Leslie Clark, and Mr. Clark, and vice regents Miss Hilda Erwin and Mrs. Ed Hall and Mr. Hall. The dance was honoured by the presence of Halton's provincial member of parliament, Stanley Hall and Mrs. Hall.

During intermission coffee and sandwiches were served. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Green received an anniversary prize, as the couple whose wedding date was closest to the day; Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Neale won spot dance prizes. Music was dispensed by the Norm Robertson orchestra from Guelph.

The dance was arranged by a committee convened by Mrs. Clark, with Mrs. Sam Penrice, Miss Jean Mackenzie, Mrs. Gordon Tee, Mrs. Ed Hall, Mrs. Stan Wright and Mrs. John T. Armstrong as members.

Guests at the dance included Stan Hall, MPP, and Mrs. Hall, Streetsville; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Armstrong, 23 Parkview Blvd.; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Alcorn and Mrs. and Mrs. Mactavish, Flesherton; Mr. and Mrs. Blair Armstrong, 18 Hewson Cresc.; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Anderson, 33 John St. E.; Mr. and Mrs. George Armitage, 9 Elizabeth St.; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Bludd, 99 Maple Ave. W.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beer, R R 3; Kay Bludd, George Brandford, 86 Guelph St.; Mr. and Mrs. Don Barrager, 20 Main St. S.; Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Bradbury, 21 Market Street; Mr. and Mrs. Denis Brown, 11 Parkview Blvd.; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Boyle, 21 Parkview Blvd.; Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Binkley, 6 Valleyview Rd.; Mr. and Mrs. C.
