SCOUT CORNER

In St. John's Church on Tuesday, February 17th, 1959, 165 Cubs, members of 1st Georgetown A and B packs and dads and Georgetown Rover crew sat down to a lovely roast beef dinner prepared by 1st Georgetown Ladies Auxiliary.

Mr. Ernie Forgrave chaired the meeting and host table-guests were as follows: Art Padfield, Brenda Ashwin, Cec Davidson, F. Bryant, Murray Scoyne, Vic Gunn, June Gunn, Ern Forgrave, Rev. M. McFarlane, Robert Bornhold, Joe McConkey, Joyce McConkey, Doug Ward and service scouts Wayne Fiebig and Art and Bert Sweezie.

A cub father, Cec McNamara introduced the speaker Mr. Robert Bornhold of Milton, a public school inspector. Mr. Bornhold spoke briefly on Lord Baden Powell. He reminded boys of the Club Laws and told boys of how famous men Edison, Lincoln, Livingstone and Dr. Banting stuck to their jobs and were able "to do good and help others." Mr. Bornhold spoke to the fathers briefly and completed his talk by reciting the poem "boys."

Vern McCumber thanked the ladies for their assistance at Cub camp last year and presented Mesdames Sweezie, Hart, Benedict, Paul, Hume, Padfield, Bilsborrow, and Miss S. Burtch with gifts of appreciation.

The meeting came to the close with "B" pack leading the group in humming "taps" while Akela Joe McConkey said a closing prayer.

1st Georgetown C pack and A and B scout troops held their annual father and son banquet in St. John's United Church hall where Rev. John Smith who formed Georgetown's first Scout troop was the guest speaker. He was introduced by the chairman Ernie Forgrave and spoke on the subject of 'ships' — companionship, sportsmanship, workmanship and worship.

One time cubmaster, now minister of 1st Baptist Church Rev. Lloyd Whan was the visiting minister at the banquet, and gave a brief talk on "Helping Boys" speaking from experience. The dads and boys were welcomed to the banquet by Rev. Morgan McFarlane.

Mr. Whan said the opening prayer and grace and a recording of the movement's founder, Lord Baden Powell, speaking to all the cubs and scouts on his 80th birthday was played for all to hear.

Scouts and cubmasters and leaders were then introduced by the chairman and included Dist. Representative Vic Gunn; Akela of C Pack, Dave Hastings; Bagheera of C Pack Frank Bryant; Baloo, Pete Forgrave; Kaa Andy DeBoer; B Troop Skipper, Don Livingstone; A troop skipper Don Smith and his assistant Queen Scout Wayne Fiebig. Mr. Bryant was also introduced in his second capacity as assistant B troop scoutmaster.

The Cub mothers auxiliary who prepared the dinner, were thanked on behalf of the fathers by Vern McCumber and Mrs. M. Sweezie represented the ladies in presenting a gift of Scout and Cub Perpetual Diaries to Don Smith and his A troop. Attendance was 129.

TODAY'S INSURANCE PROBLEMS ANSWERED

Question: An irresponsible driver claims he doesn't need insurance because he has no property. If he had an accident he'd leave the country. How far would he be pursued for judgment?

Answer: No limit; he is liable wherever he and his property can be found. But the only one who "pursues" him is the person who holds the judgment, or his lawyer.

3rd GEORGETOWN PACK

This week being Boy Scout week our meeting was a special one on Lord Baden Powell. Bagheera Anna Mair told the boys during the instruction period of some incidents in B-P's life. Games completed the evening.

Leaders in the area are reminded of the St. John Ambulance Course to begin on March 11th at St. John's Church.

On February 14th, approximately 100 scouts of Milton, Acton, Georgetown, Glen Williams and Norval took part in an area district hike. The patrols were issued with sealed orders and upon opening them found to read their destination they must follow their compasses and grid maps. Blue Springs scout reserve was the final destination and the scouts cooked their dinner there. An afternoon of games had been planned but due to the rain this part of the program was called off. Leaders and Scouts by this time were thoroughly soaked and when the group started home found the hills in the area had turned to sheets of ice. A sanding truck had to be called to help them over the slippery spots.

Rockettes Challenge Second Place Bowlers

The race for second place in the Golf Ladies' bowling league tightened up after Monday's action when the Rockettes enjoyed a seven-point afternoon to pull within just two points of the current second place club, the Chumps.

The Chumps had a pointless day and failed to add to their 53 points while Rockettes now boast 51.

Mrs. Ross Duncan's Chop Chops continue to run away from the rest of the league. They also picked up seven points for a 77 total, while the Squibs' bid to get into the top three fell flat as they were held to no points.

Mrs. Ross Duncan, Mrs. Ken Nash and Mrs. William McNally carded the top three singles, 232, 231 and 223 respectively and the same three claimed triple honours. Mrs. Nash 663, Mrs. Duncan 637 and Mrs. McNally 604. The season's highs were not affected by the scores and have gone unchanged for over five weeks.

The best average still belongs to Mrs. Ron Kitchen who has a 188 while Mrs. Scotty Herkes and Mrs. Ken Nash are tied for second with 176. Eleanor Spitzer owns a 175.

SUN BLINDS MOTORIST HITS PARKED CAR

A car parked on Delrex Blvd. early Thursday night was damaged to the extent of an estimated $175 when struck from behind by a car driven by Alec Binding of 2943 Keele Street, Downsview.

Mr. Binding, who was eastbound on Delrex when the accident happened, told police he was momentarily blinded by the sun and did not see the parked vehicle. The impact knocked the standing car owned by Lionel Ashcroft, of 24 Delrex Blvd., ahead thirteen feet.

Damage to the Binding car was $100, according to Cst. Roy Rankine who investigated. Both cars were 1956 Fords.
