HORTICULTURAL SPEAKER DESCRIBES NEW FLOWERS

Members of the Georgetown Horticultural Society learned "What's New in Flowers for 1959" at their public meeting in Wrigglesworth Public School Wednesday evening, Feb. 18th, when W. R. Hankinson of the Douglas Seed Co. of Brantford addressed them as the guest speaker.

Mr. Hankinson commented on the more popular of the newer varieties of flowering plants and told of the procedure for developing these outstanding specimens of the plant kingdom. The new plants are now being made available to the general public he said. His talk was illustrated by colored slides.

The door prize donated by the society was won by E. Christensen and five door prizes of flower seed donated by the Douglas Seed company were won by H. Woodcroft, Mrs. D. W. Baxter, Mrs. C. Wilson, Miss V. Moleworth and John Elliott.

The conveners of the committee appointed by the Board for carrying the work of the society forward in 1959 were announced by the president, Ed Faris. They are: membership, E. B. Swackhamer; park promotion, E. Faris; flower show, R. Williams; plant purchasing, H. Marchington; program, Mrs. C. Wilson; social, Mrs. N. Devereaux; and junior work, Mrs. G. W. Fiebig and Bruce Harley.

BALLINAFAD

CONDUCT COOKING COURSE FOR BALLINAFAD LADIES

Prize winners at the Institute cuture on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Sinclair, were Mrs. A. Lawr, Mrs. T. Gibson, Messrs. Archie Lawr and Frank Smith. There were nine tables in all.

The members of the CGIT visited the "shut ins" in the community Sunday afternoon and took to each home where they called a gift of fruit and candy, etc.

The YPU met for their usual meeting in the church at Ballinafad on Sunday evening. There was a good turnout and they enjoyed a half hour of recreation following their meeting.

Douglas McLaughlin and Bobby Black accompanied by their fathers attended the Father & Son banquet on Tuesday night for the Cubs in St. John's Church in Georgetown. They also attended the church parade held in the Anglican Church on Sunday afternoon.

About 20 members of the Institute and other ladies in the community enjoyed a cooking course on "the third meal" last Wednesday from 10 o'clock in the morning until 4 in the afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leo Jamieson. Mrs. Frank Smith and Mrs. J. W. Snow who had previously attended a school on the same subject, demonstrated the making of several delicious meals to those present, and for the noon lunch each member brought either a casserole dish or a dessert. Many new recipes were given out and the remainder of the afternoon was enjoyed by making some of them up and tasting the results.

The traffic jam was blocks long and the policeman's temper was getting warmer by the minute, as the little old lady tried vainly to start her stalled car.

"That light has changed 3 times while you've been sitting there, lady. What's the matter, haven't we got a color you like?"

Life's embarrassing moments! Speaking of being embarrassed — if the family bus has seen better days have you thought about replacing it with a late-model used car? If you have I suggest you drop around and see the fine selection of thoroughly reconditioned used cars on our lot. You might like to begin with TODAY'S BEST BUY: 1956 METEOR sedan.
