President, Recent Bride Gets Church W.A. Gift

Mrs. George Ironside, a recent bride was presented with a chaise longue for summer relaxation at the general meeting of the Women's Association of St. John's United Church Monday evening.

Mrs. Ironside, who is president of the W.A., presided at the meeting and called on Mrs. C. J. Buck for the worship period. Basing her remarks on Matthew 15 Ch. Mrs. Buck brought a most timely and uplifting message. Rev. M. G. McFarlane was present and conducted the installation of the new officers. In his opening remarks he paid special tribute to the memory of the late Mrs. Harold Cleave who had served the association so faithfully.

The officers for 1959 are: President, Mrs. G. Ironside, 1st vice Mrs. Al Zeraviev; 2nd vice, Mrs. Doug Latimer; treasurer, Mrs. Cecil Davidson. Recording secretary, Mrs. Milton Armstrong; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Claude Teague. The following committees were also formed: Flowers, Gladys Ward; Mrs. James Kirkwood and Mrs. Hendricks; Catering, Mrs. W. Wyatt, Mary Sayres, Mrs. Wesley Fiebig and Mrs. A. Zeraviev; Manse, Mrs. Geo. Ward, Mrs. Frank Whitmee, Miss May Thompson and Mrs. Howard Kentner; Kitchen, Mrs. Gordon Urquhart; Mrs. C. Teague, Mrs. Claude Kentner; Bazaar, Mrs. M. G. McFarlane, Mrs. Annie Vannatter, Mrs. Don Powers; Program, Mrs. J. Kirkwood, Mrs. William McClements, Mrs. Fred Ross.

Mrs. F. Whitmee was elected to represent the W.A. on the M & M Committee.

The gift of two electric coffee makers was received from A.A. group and are certainly very much appreciated. Mrs. Ironside thanked the ladies for their gift and invited them to meet at her home again soon.

Mr. Thomas Darcie of Glen Williams was present and favored with two lovely solos "Steal Away" and "The Old Rugged Cross." At the close of the business period the ladies adjourned to the Hall where Mrs. James Evans showed the coloured pictures of her European tour. Mrs. C. Kentner thanked Mrs. Evans for coming and giving this pleasant interlude. Refreshments were served by Group 4, W.A. in charge of Mrs. Evans and a social time was enjoyed.

The big Rotary Minstrel Show is in production again, with casting taking place and plans being made to present this fine entertainment again for Georgetown's enjoyment.

Furs, Dresses Modelled True Blue Fashion Show

Last Wednesday evening, February 25th, Knox Presbyterian Hall was aglow with spring fashions and flowers, when the Loyal True Blue Association presented their first annual spring fashion show.

Styles were by Cotton Bros. of Georgetown and the ramp and stage were beautifully decorated by Rosedale Floral. Barber's supplied all the glamorous jewellery accessories worn by the models.

The fabulous furs, coats, suits and dresses were lovely to behold and the models, all local girls, did a near-professional job of adding to the beauty of the fashions by their gracious manner and their own loveliness. Those modelling were:

Miss Eleanor Spitzer, Mrs. Don Arthurs, Mrs. Ken Harris, Mrs. Bev Moody, Mrs. Joe. Emmerson, Miss Barbara Lusty, Miss Linda Packer, Miss Lynda Korzack, Miss Evelyn Harris, Miss Karen Armann, Mrs. Wm. Montgomery, Mrs. Gordon Spence, Mrs. Dick Prust, Mrs. Wm. McCracken, Mrs. Alex Read, Miss Deanna Willis, Miss Irene Rafal, Mrs. Bert Corbett, Mrs. K. R. Livingston, Mrs. Dennis Booth, Mrs. Vic McNiven.

Each person attending received a generous sample of Richard Hudson Creme Rinse, compliments of MacCormack's Drug Store and either a lipstick or a sachet from local Avon representatives. Also there were twenty other ladies who received additional gifts as well, namely Miss Marion T. Scarlett, Hypnotique gift set, Miss Pat Harris, Command Performance Cologne; Mrs. Sam Mackenzie, necklace and earrings; Mrs. Hugh Lindsay, sweater clip; Mrs. John Rathbone, plant; and the following received Revlon sample sets: Mrs. Herb Hancock, Mrs. Jim Peardon, Mrs. Bert Gilmer, Mrs. Bert Carey, Mrs. Frank Cleave, Nellie Pacholok, Mrs. Doug Townsend, Mrs. Alex Bullock, Mrs. Edna Cole, Mrs. Albert Livingstone, Peggy Miller, Mrs. Jean Cummins, Miss Gladys Neutel, Marg Williams and Pearl Miller.

Mrs. J. L. Barber supplied the musical background for the show and Mrs. Robert Harris assisted Fred Cotton with the commenting and made the lucky draws. Convener for the show was Mrs. Vic McNiven.

Reports seem to indicate that an enjoyable time was had by all who attended and many are already anticipating next year's show.

SILVER DOLLAR PRIZES AT CURLERS' DINNER

Silver dollars, fifteen, ten and five, were the prizes in a lucky draw held at the Curlers' dinner in the Rose Room Thursday following the annual mixed bonspiel hosted by the Georgetown club.

Mrs. Murray Moly was the first prize winner, while Jack Hepburn was second and Mrs. A. Johnson, a visitor from Hamilton, third. Making the draws were Bill Rain of Brampton, Ernie Curry of Georgetown, and Mrs. Dick Licata of Georgetown.

SCOUT CORNER

A fitting climax to Boy Scout Week was the church parade held on Feb. 22nd. St. George's Anglican Church was filled to overflowing with Cubs, Scouts, Brownies, Guides and Rover crews of Georgetown. A few parents also attended. Service began at 3:00 p.m. and the groups entered the church through an arch formed by the flags of the Cubs and Scouts.

Scout Barry Carr said the opening prayer and the scripture was read by Guide Carole Lane. Scout Peter Norton of 1st Glen Williams troop sang "The End of a Perfect Day."

The address was given by Vic Gunn, ADC, Training. He took as his subject the Guiding word of THINK. Taking each letter separately he explained the T was for Trustfulness, the H for Humility, the N for Nature and the K for Kindness. The most important letter being the I in the middle; we were all reminded to think of this in our daily lives.

Leaders of the Cubs, Scouts, Brownies and Guides came forward at this point and each section in turn reaffirmed their promise.

Benediction was said by Rev. Ken Richardson and the groups retired from the church the same as they came in.

2nd Georgetown A Pack

In a special ceremony at their last pack meeting, Cubs Ian Bowell and Mike Dwyer received their second stars.

One hundred and twenty one Cubs, Scouts and Guides took advantage of a local store's offer of Free photograph last Saturday.

A welcome is extended to the new Hornby Cub Pack and its leader, Mr. J. Drewbrook.

MRS. KENNETH ELLA BREAKS ANKLE IN FALL ON ICE

Mrs. Kenneth Ella accidentally slipped and fell on the ice at her home and received a badly broken ankle. She was taken to Oakville Memorial Hospital. The accident happened on February 24th and she will be in the hospital for more than a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bennett and family moved to the apartment at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin

Southwood on Saturday, Feb 28th.

The fire truck was called to the farm of Mr. Gordon Lee on Friday, when the grease in the smoke house was overheated. The building was blackened with smoke.

The euchre party held at the Orange hall on Friday evening, Feb. 28th was well attended and enjoyed by all.

There were fourteen tables of euchre. The prizes were won by Mrs. Glenn Saunders with high score and Mrs. Gordon Robinson with the low for the ladies. The men's prizes were won by Mr. Doug Leslie with the high and Mr. Edward Robertson with the low score. Mrs. Snider of Georgetown won the lucky door draw. The Hornby Women's Institute who sponsored the euchre are planning another in three weeks.
