Holy Cross Open House
Marks Education Week

To mark the close of Education Week, Open House was held at Holy Cross School on Sunday, March 8th from 2:00 p.m. until 4:30 p.m. This was the first open house held at the school since it opened last September. Almost 500 parents and visitors were conducted on tours of the school by members of the School Board. The parents later discussed the progress of their children with their staff and afterwards had coffee in one of the school rooms.

Each of the classrooms were gaily decorated with the regular work and special projects of the children.

Many complimentary remarks were made about the lovely appearance of the school by the visitors, many of whom were making their first visit.

HORNBY

ST. PATRICK'S THEME FOR SUMMARY DAY

Seven members of the Hornby Women's Institute attended the Halton summary day program in Stewarttown hall on Tuesday, March 3rd. This was a climax to the course taken by nine of the Institute in Halton on "The Third Meal." About seventy ladies attended and were welcomed by Mrs. Borgstrom, home economist. Each group had put up a display and these were commented on by Miss Mary Porteous, food specialist. Each group also put on a skit or demonstration on "The Third Meal" or a panel discussion and these were commented on by Miss Hucks. The Hornby ladies were Mrs. W. Coulton and Mrs. J. Wallace. Their display had a St. Patrick's theme in keeping with March. Five of the ladies took part in a panel discussion as Hornby's part in the program. Tea and cookies were served at the close by the Norval Institute.

St. Stephen's Anglican Guild met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Flippance on Wednesday evening, March 4th with ten ladies present. Mrs. Glenn Saunders, now president, was in charge of the meeting. The secretary read a letter of resignation from Mrs. Ken Ella from being president of the Guild. Plans were made for the coming banquet. It was decided not to have a tea this year. A suggestion was made to have a bake sale in one of the homes later in the spring. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Kendall on Tuesday, March 24th. The meeting closed with prayer. Mrs. Saunders conducted a contest. Lunch was served by Mrs. Cliff Hunter and the hostess.

Birthday wishes to Susan Bradley, who will be three years old on March 12th. Grant Lee who has a birthday on March 16th and Pat Flippance on March 17th. The Hornby Women's Institute had a booth at the Wm. Anderson sale on Saturday afternoon, Mar. 7th. The ladies were kept very busy serving coffee and hot dogs. The sale attracted a very large crowd, even though the weather was cold. The ladies at the booth are glad to report they had a very profitable day.

Many are sick at home or in the hospital from the district. Mrs. Robert Orr fell in her home last Monday morning, March 2nd and broke her hip. She is in Hamilton hospital. Mr. Jack Royce is back in Brampton hospital. Mr. Kenneth Ella is still in Oakville Memorial Hospital with a broken ankle. Johnny and Judy Saunders have been sick for over a week with the cold and fever. Mr. Arthur Plant has been sick for some time now. Mr. Pat Flippance is still in the Toronto Western Hospital. Paul Thompson has been home from school with a cold and sore throat.

The Evening W.A. held their March meeting at the Hornby United Church on Monday, Mar. 2nd, with Mrs. Harold Learmon presiding. The meeting opened in the usual manner. The roll call was answered by each member giving an article suitable for the fall bazaar. It was decided to have a social evening on March 17th. The meeting closed with prayer and lunch was served.

Mrs. Doug Leslie was hostess to the Afternoon W.A. and WMS of Hornby United Church at her home on Thursday, March 5. Mrs. W. Coulton presided for the WSM. Mrs. C. Wrigglesworth read the minutes and correspondence. The meeting was turned over to the ninth line group. As there were several ladies who had not attended the World Day of Prayer, the group followed the program that had been used that day. Mrs. Hill then gave a talk on prayers and the president closed the meeting.

Mrs. D. Leslie presided for the W.A. Mrs. Brown read the minutes and correspondence. The sewing and paragonage committees gave their reports. Plans were made for a banquet they are catering to on Saturday. The meeting closed with prayer and Mrs. Winch assisted the hostess to serve lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Sampson visited with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Latimer in Toronto on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook and family and Mrs. Thomas Cook of Belwood visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Bradley on Sunday.

Rebekah Birthday Party Is Successful Event

Members of Verdun Rebekah Lodge entertained at their annual birthday party on Thursday evening, March 5th. The guests were welcomed by the Noble Grand, Mrs. Ernie Rawson. There were eighteen tables of euchre played with Mrs. Wray Bessey winning the first prize, Mrs. Joe Gibbons and Mrs. Irwin Noble were tied for second prize with Mrs. Gibbons winning the cut Mrs. Annie Ballantine and Mrs. Thomas Hutchison were the other winners.

Mr. Joe Shields was exceptionally lucky winning both the door prize and the lucky draw. Mrs. Gordon Spence Sr. was in charge of the arrangements for the cards and the four group conveners were in charge of the lunch which was served in the downstairs banquet room. The traditional birthday cake was made by Mrs. S. Groat.

St. George's Planning Parochial Mission

Over forty individuals will be taking part in the St. George's Anglican Lenten Crusade which begins on Passion Sunday, March 15 reported Wilfred Brisbois, Crusade Chairman at a recent week-end meeting.

The purpose of the Crusade is to provide information and interest in a parochial mission which is scheduled for April 12th-18th. Also to strengthen the church school work, general attendance and participation not so much by individuals but by families. The emphasis is on the return to the family pew.

The chairman noted that two missions will be held, one for students of public school age school hours and one for adults and high school students in the evening. In the Preparatory sessions the group have studied "The Master's Call of the twelve disciples." "The mission of the seventy" and "The Guidance of the Holy Spirit." Role play has also played a valuable part in the preparation and literature has been obtained and studied.

The committee comprises Mr. Brisbois, Paul Thompson and Frank Evis, the churchwardens and rector. A day of parish prayer has been set aside prior to the Easter weekend to unite all the members and organizations in common intercession for the strengthening of the Faith. This will be held 8 p.m. April 26th, in the Church.
