

Federation Speaker Tells Indian Reservation Life

The Women's Federation of St. Andrew's United Church held their regular meeting at Cedarvale School for Girls on March 11th. President Mrs. Kelvin C. Brown led in a short worship service and explained the Easter thanksgiving which was celebrated later in the evening.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane of St. John's United introduced Rev. J. D. McFadden of Cape Croker United Church. This is on an Indian reservation in the Bruce Peninsula where he ministers to the needs of a number of Indian families. He explained their problems of adapting to the white man's way of life, and also told how the new generation is losing their language, customs and crafts.

Mrs. McFadden accompanied her husband to Georgetown for the meeting. She gave many interesting sidelights on family life on the reservation and displayed a beautiful beaded necklace made by one of their church people. Rev. and Mrs. McFadden have three children of their own and two adopted Indian daughters, ages 16 and 18.

A question period followed Mr. McFadden's talk, with members asking many questions. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Harold Brownridge, Mrs. Ronald Hetherington, Mrs. Jack Hobson, Mrs. Albert Turner and Mrs. John Zorge.

MAX BRADBURY IS STAR WITH MILTON

Max Bradbury, who with brother Leigh was a stalwart on Raider hockey team a few years ago, is still maintaining his hockey prowess. He scored three of his team's five goals when P. L. Robertson took a one-game lead in the Milton industrial finals by beating Ontario Steel 5-2 last week. The teams are playing a best of five series.

Switzer-Mann Nuptials In St. John's United

Rev. Morgan McFarlane officiated at a wedding ceremony in St. John's United Church on Friday evening at 7:00 p.m. which united in marriage Marlene Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mann, 12 College St. and Roy Switzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Switzer, R.R. 1 Glen Williams.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Ernest Morgan of Toronto, wore a blue suit, white headress and accessories and carried a nosegay of red roses and white carnations. Her attendant, Miss Barbara Lusty, wore an orchid suit, pink accessories and carried a nosegay of flowers similar to the bridal bouquet. The bride's brother, George Mann, was groomsmen.

A reception was held afterwards at the home of the bride's parents with guests from Georgetown and Toronto attending. The couple left for a honeymoon trip in the States, and plan to make their home on Durham St.

Rev. Len Self's Rink Winners at Bospiel

A former Norval resident, Rev. Len Self, skipped his Midland rink to a win in the 9 o'clock draw of the Farmers' Bospiel at the arena on Thursday. Mr. Self's score of 34 was three points better than the winners of the 11 o'clock draw, a Georgetown rink skipped by Earl Olsen.

Another Georgetown foursome skipped by Jack Hepburn was second to the Self rink in the early draw. Brampton rinks were third and fourth and Hillsburgh finished fifth and sixth.

R. Fotheringham skipped his Palmerston rink to second in the late draw and two local rinks skipped by Wray Bessey and Elmer Burt got up to take third and fourth while Fergus and Gorrie units skipped by Norm Skeoch and Bill Taylor finished well back.

Eight of the twenty rinks taking part in the spiel were from town, the others travelling here from Hillsburgh (2), Erin (2), Midland, Brampton (2), Orton, Fergus (2), Palmerston and Gorrie.

Prize donors included: Orville Shea, Dunc Robinson, Scott Motors, Herkes Motors, Maveal Motors, Murt Allison, Murray Moloy, Walter Lawson, Bill Schenk Jr., Brampton Milling, Horace Barnes and Canada Packers.

LIMEHOUSE

MRS. KIRKPATRICK IS HOSTESS TO INSTITUTE

Mrs. Sidney Kirkpatrick hosted the March meeting of the Limehouse Women's Institute at her home, Thursday March 5th, where Mrs. J. E. Roughley presided.

The meeting opened with the Institute Ode followed by the Lord's Prayer and the roll call "name your first school teacher" was responded to by ten members. A donation to the Halton Music Festival was granted during the business session which also produced two memberships to the retarded children organizations in connection with the Sunshine School at Milton.

The remaining program was conducted by Mrs. Mitchell, convener of Citizenship and Education, with coming events taken by Mrs. Ed Sanford. Two minute reports of the conveners included "Thoughts for Seed Potatoes" by Mrs. Harry Brown, Agriculture and Canadian Industries, "Medical Music" by Mrs. English, Home Economics & Health" and "Georgetown worker gives credit to jobless Avro workers." by Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Historical Research and Current Events.

"Think well before you speak" was the motto taken by Mrs. Kirkpatrick who pointed out if everyone took time to think before speaking how many less hurts there would be.

Mrs. Sanford read an interesting paper on Mental Hygiene and Recreational Guidance followed by a contest on dress materials won by Mrs. Ted Brown and Mrs. Roughley. The meeting closed with "The Queen" and lunch was served by committee, Mrs. Sam Gishy, Mrs. Harry Brown and the hostess.

HELP AVRO MEN

Building their new Norton Garden Centre at George View Plaza, Tom and Jack Reed have been helping five ex-Avro men by employing them on the project.

The building is nearing completion and the Reed brothers are working on plans for a grand opening.
