High School Students Participate in Canadian Math's Competition

Twenty-nine students from the Georgetown high school, participated in a continent-wide mathematics competition recently sponsored in Ontario by the Canadian Association of Actuarles and the Canadian Mathematical Congress. The competition's aim is to develop capable mathematicians for the professions represented by the sponsoring bodies and to-meet demands of the expanding field of Over 4,000 Ontario high school and private school students are taking part in the 1959 competition. Entries are from 209 secondary schools, a large increase from last year when only forty schools represented by 800 students participated. The contest consists of 50 questions in elementary mathematics and usually runs 80 minutes.

It is expected more than 80,000 students in North America wil take part this year. Ontario competitors are grouped in a region that includes the Province of Quebec and the State of New York, except the area covered by Metropolitan New York City.

Great Music CBC RADIO

Great music and radio broadcasting have always gone together. And listeners to CBC Radio have always expected the very finest from their publicly owned broadcasting system. That is one of the reasons CBC Radio is particularly proud to present the CBC Symphony Orchestra every Sunday evening. We have welcomed some of the world's most distinguished conductors and instrumentalists. Among them have been Sir Malcolm Sargeant, William Primrose, Sir Engene Goossens, Alexander Brott, Albert Pratz, Tibor Von Paul and Mary

We invite you to join our audience every Sunday evening at 8.30 p.m. for the
