NEW CANADIAN AIR SERVICE: One of Canadian Pacific Airlines new 400 m.p.h. Britannia aircraft streaks across the above layout as it will through the skies of Canada on May 4th when CPA's new daily cross-Canada service links Montreal, Toronto, Winnipeg and Vancouver. Cutting one hour, 25 minutes from existing commercial airline flying time between Vancouver and Montreal, CPA will become the first Canadian airline to provide tourist accommodation in a jet-prop plane. Upper left, Capt. Jim McGuire explains to passenger the "Eye in the Sky" radar unit installed to detect weather disturbances ahead of the airliner so that the rough air may be avoided. Upper right, stewards and stewardesses from Germany, China, Holland, France and Japan who operate on CPA's international routes fanning out from each of the new cross-Canada service. Lower left, meals on tables and continental cuisine will be features of both tourist and first class service when operations commence. Lower right, pilots learn how to fly the Britannia in a flight simulator, exact replica of the plane's flight deck. The operator, seated behind pilots, flicks switches to create every type of in-flight situation which a pilot might encounter. At bottom, route map indicates mileages and eastbound flying times between cities to be served by CPA, and also shows international connections at each end of new route.

American Visitors Entertain Residents at Milton Manor

In the absence of Rev. K. L. Campbell, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church, Milton, two gentlemen who are laymen of the same church, Mr. Jack Bristow and Mr. Jack Mountain conducted the church service in the chapel on Sunday afternoon, April 5th. Mr. Bristow led the singing and delivered the sermon, while Mr. Mountain played the piano accompaniment, offered prayer and read the scripture lesson. The scripture lesson was verses 1-20 of the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians and it was upon this portion of Scripture that Mr. Bristow based his sermon. Pointing out the fact that this chapter is sometimes called the Resurrection chapter, Mr. Bristow chose two themes from this chapter, the act of the Resurrection and the importance of the Resurrection. The Resurrection was a fact, he said, because after the Resurrection Christ was seen by many. To emphasize the importance of the Resurrection he enumerated seven calamities described in this chapter from which human beings would suffer if Christ's Resurrection were not a fact.

A group that has provided great pleasure for the residents on several previous occasions came again to the Manor on Wednesday, April 8th, to present a program of sacred and secular music and readings. The group was the Alert Evening Auxiliary of Knox Presbyterian Church, Acton. Two especially welcome visitors were Rev. Andrew McKenzie, Minister of Knox Church, and Mrs. McKenzie. Gracious greetings from the group were extended by Mrs. George Young, the president of the group and by Mrs. Fred Anderson, the program convener, who announced the various numbers on the program. Mrs. Melvin McCullough was the very talented accompanist for all the musical selections. Several familiar old hymns were sung and Mrs. Earl Marshall led the group in the responsive reading of Chapter 13 of First Corinthians. Words of greeting and a timely address were given by Mr. McKenzie who based his remarks on the chapter of Corinthians. Readings both sacred and humorous were given by Mrs. George Muselle, Mrs. H. L. Bunn, Mrs. El. Mac-ture teaches us to have implicit faith in God. The question: "How shall we do?" asked by Elisha's servant, is a question asked by all human beings at some time or other in their lives. These are the very times when God gives us the strength to solve our problems and "keep going on."

Donald, and Mrs. El. Mac-

Another "first" was chalked up at the Manor on Sunday afternoon April 12th, when Mrs. W. A. Wilson and her daughter, Nancy, of Lathrup Village, Michigan, a suburb of Detroit, entertained the residents by presenting an hour of vocal and instrumental music. This was the first time that American citizens on vacation in Canada from their own homeland had entertained the residents, although American citizens filling positions in Canada have done so. Mrs. W. A. Wilson and Nancy are the daughter-in-law and granddaughter of Mr. Bob Wilson, formerly of Woodward Avenue and well-known in Milton. Nancy is a talented instrumentalist as well as a singer. She played both the piano and the clarinet, and sang several duets with her mother. For her piano solos she chose classical music such as one of Scarlatti's Sonatas followed by more familiar selections such as That's An Irish Lullaby and I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles. The famous Barcarolle by Offenbach, the gypsy song Dark Eyes and The Campbells Are Coming, were three of her clarinet solos. Mrs. Wilson and Nancy sang several duets. In Dry Palaces, In the Garden and the Bible Tells Me So, among others Nancy also gave an amusing monologue. How I Entertained Mrs. Jones, in which her mother played the part of the silent Mrs. Jones. Mrs. Wilson joined Nancy in a skit based on an imaginary telephone conversation carried on by two mischievous young girls. The entire recital was very enjoyable and the two ladies won great admiration by presenting such a varied program. The pleasure they gave the residents was acknowledged by a very hearty round of applause for these "American Cousins" at the end of the program.
