Rumour Trafalgar Men Seek P.C. Nomination

With the approaching convention of the Progressive - Conservative party of Halton, speculation is rife as to what will take place. Mr. Stanley Hall, present MPP has represented Halton County for sixteen years, since the Conservatives won the 1943 election, and since that time has not been opposed for the nomination.

However, one of the county papers in the south, has been speculating as to whether there be opposition this time or not. In a recent item, the Oakville Record - Star announced that there were two potential candidates in that area, and that in an interview one had announced his candidacy. The two men mentioned were Mr. Larry Comd and Mr. Glen Cooper, both of Trafalgar Township.

Further to this, the article said that there had been rumours of dissent in the county executive of the P-Cs and a rift was taking place. This in turn was denied by the county president, who termed it "utter rubbish," there was no dissent, and he was certain Mr. Hall would be the candidate, and would capture the convention.

Since then, in an interview with the Hamilton Spectator, the president of the YPC group in Burlington - Nelson area, announced that at a meeting of his group it was decided that their group would be supporting Stan Hall.

With all the ensuing publicity, concerning the matter, one thing is certain the forthcoming P-C convention to be held Monday night, April 27th in Milton town hall, will be an interesting and possibly lively one!

August was a holiday month, however, in September the Institute inaugurated a gardens competition for the school children which concluded with a display and social evening in September. The institute sponsored two courses for local young girls, Wool, and the Club Girl Entertains, and two leaders were sent to senior training school at Milton for "3rd meal" theme. Four meetings of demonstrations were held and two members gave demonstrations at the summary day meeting.

The W.I. is also kept busy doing quilting and selling greeting cards, catering for local affairs at the hall and sending flowers and fruit to the sick and shut-ins, as well as Christmas cheer boxes at Christmas. They also send contributions to Queen Elizabeth Hospital, Salvation Army, Scott Mission, Care, Navy League, Music Festival, W.I. Bursary and Sunshine School, and award books to school children for attendance and improved grades.

Mrs. Roughley presided at the meeting and opened it with the institute ode followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. The roll call and payment of fees preceded Mrs. Ted Brown's financial report and reports by all conveners followed the business.

LEGION NOTES

by Les Clark

Plans for the convention are in full progress these days, and we understand that this one will be a real big affair. The host branches, Kitchener and Waterloo, are going all out and we should judge that there will be a real welcome.

We were impressed last convention, at the sly subtle campaign waged to get it to that town and district. While Cornwall really came prepared to take it over, using a really high pressure sales approach, they were finally bested by the Kitchener aggregation and district. Cornwall had even gone so far as to print a special bulletin on coated stock, about sixteen pages, banners everywhere and a suite where visitors were welcome and royally treated, if you follow our drift. They even used the pitch about the Queen coming to open the seaway, and the possibility of a royal appearance at the convention. On the face of it they seemed a shoo-in to get the convention, but Kitchener in an easy, slow way gradually gathered strength and support from everywhere, and finally by the time the vote rolled around, easily led the race, taking about three quarters of the votes, over Cornwall, and a last minute entry, Hamilton.

Lt. Col. The Hon. Keiller Mackay, DSO, will open the convention. As everyone knows, he is lieutenant governor of Ontario, and a past president of the Ontario Command of the Canadian Legion. He is one of the truly greats of the Legion, having taken an active interest, in every phase, and indeed drafting our original constitution. His efforts as an advocate for pension for veterans in the early depression days is a great one, and even upon his ascent to the office of Master of the Supreme Court of Ontario he found time to take a great interest in the Legion.

One of the highlights of the last convention, to the writer, at least, was the visit of the Rt. Hon. Milton Gregg, VC, former minister of labour, who opened the convention. It was really worth while hearing him and his various anecdotes of life as seen in the various places he had visited. We think everyone was impressed with his handling of the whole week's activities, and his active participation in them all, right until the end of the convention.

We hope to see a good delegation from the zone at Kitchener.

District convention is this Sunday, and we hope to see a full complement from Georgetown present. Most branches in the zone are sending a colour party and delegates. So far Harry Howard is taking a load, and we hope that sports chairman Gob will send some representatives up to hear about the district sports. This subject will without a doubt, be on the agenda.

Don't forget the big rifle competition next Friday, May 1st, in the Armouries. This is going to be a real big affair, with some really fine shooting and entertainment. There will be refreshments available as well as shooting for all those who wish to, as well as the team competitions.

The monthly meeting is this Thursday night, and Jim Murphy
