Auspicious Soccer Debut For Localites At Oakville

The performance of the Georgetown Hearts in a losing cause at Oakville's Wallace Park on Saturday sparked contemplation of a successful debut - by the bantam club when Oakville and district minor soccer league gets under way later this month.

The Oakville team which won the contest 2-1 has been playing as a unit in organized soccer for two full years while Georgetown's experience totals three short weeks of practice. Every boy on the team showed potential.

If any one player stood out from the others it was Georgetown's goal keeper, Buddy Lauppe who made several spectacular stops to nail down a job at that position. Whether or not the encouraging display put on by the young club in their initial test was a true picture of their chances in the tough seven team league will be better considered by the coaching staff after a proposed exhibition game with a Hamilton club. They are still negotiating for this one and a definite playing date has not yet been decided on.

The younger team, the atoms, try their wings for the first time tonight when they take on their Oakville counterparts in an exhibition game at Georgetown park. Kick-off time here is 7 p.m.

ASHGROVE

HOSPITALITY QUEENS ENTERTAIN FOR MOTHERS

We are into the loveliest months of the year. May with its sunshine, which brings the yellow forsythia tulips and daffodils and singing birds. Then comes June with spiraea's white blossoms and roses, strawberries and lovely brides. We should be grateful for the blessings that are showered upon us and take time to say thank you to God for all he has done for us.

The Ashgrove Hospitality Queens entertained their mothers and in-laws last Saturday afternoon, May 9th at the home of Margaret Austin. President Jean Hunter presided for a program consisting of: piano instrumental by Doris Pickett, vocal duet by Karen Bridgen and Nora Barnes, solo by Sandra Carney, demonstration, packing a week end bag by Marilyn Wilson and Margaret Austin. Evelyn Bird, Dianné Wrigglesworth, Judy Walker and Adrienne Nurse, were in charge of the tea. A thank you to Mrs. Charles Austin and Margaret was given by Teitze Spoelstra.

A lovely mothers' and Christian family day was held in the church on Sunday morning. Floral decorations of forsythia and daffodils adorned the front. Supt. of the Hill in the pulpit and printed programs were used. Scripture was read by Doreen Carney. Barbara Cunningham's solo "God hath not promised skies always blue" was very lovely. Margaret Austin told the story of Prince the little colt. Rev. Hill spoke on the little lad who had the lunch of loaves and fishes and how by a miracle performed by Jesus it fed the multitude of hungry people. Sometimes opportunities seem small, but when we are ready to do our part and give what we have God can do wonders for us.

The Young People held their meeting on Sunday evening at the home of Bob Ruddell with Doris Pickett and Ralph Cunningham in charge.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Harvey Nurse and her family in the death of her father, Mr. Percy Laidlaw last week. Everyone was so pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. John H. Hunter and family, Catherine, Nancy, Ellen and Stephen from Glen Williams at the service on Sunday morning.
