Cleaners Hear Talk On Fabrics, Damage

Members of Halton - Peel Dry Cleaners association had Lorne Gibson, Toronto, president of the Canadian Institute of Dry Cleaners and Launderers as their guest at a meeting last week in the Queen's Hotel, Brampton.

Mr. Gibson, who was accompanied by Hartley Curry and John Dillon, officers of the DCIL showed coloured slides depicting fabrics and the different types of damage which cleaners should watch for in their business. He explained the operation of a management school at Silver Springs, Maryland.

Don Barrager, who is Halton - Peel president, introduced Mr. Gibson and the other guests and presided at the meeting.

Jack Addy Appointed Lodge Grand Steward

A member of Halton Chapter, RAM, Jack Addy, Glen Williams, was appointed Grand Steward when Grand Chapter met for the 101st annual convocation in Toronto. Mr. Addy was district secretary last year. The appointment carries the title, Very Excellent Companion.

Completing his year as District Superintendent, Lou Tracey, attended the 3-day sessions at the Royal York Hotel and with his wife was a guest at the banquet which is always a feature of the convocation. Other local lodge members who attended the banquet with their wives were Irwin Noble and Sam Fenice, Charles Renwick and Jack Armstrong.
