Parliament, Casa Loma TV Show Seen on Trip

Grade 7 and 8 pupils of Chapel St. public school, travelling by bus, had a wonderful day in the city on Friday when, under the guidance of principal Val Stein they toured several places of interest.

Their trip took them first to Port Credit where they visited the Lawrence Starch Co. Cookies, cake, and a cold drink, supplied by Norman Laird, former choir director at St. John's United Church were a surprise feature of this tour, and samples of Beehive corn syrup were given to each pupil.

The first stop in Toronto was Casa Loma, and after seeing this historic building had a picnic lunch in High Park. A tour of the Parliament Buildings was next, and it was a coincidence that a similar group from Brantford were going through at the same time—a class from Chapel St. school in that city, with their principal Mr. Steinback.

Tickets had been secured for Gordie Tapp's PM Party, and most of the pupils saw a live telecast for the first time. Two teachers, Mr. Stein and Mrs. James F. Evans were interviewed, with the two top pupils from Grade 8, Mary Evans and Aric Vandervoort, and they received gifts. In a novelty contest, Carol Boudreau and Penny Burley managed to outdo two ladies from Gravenhurst in a ball blowing contest and were recipients of huge parcels of groceries. The tour of the city ended with a visit to Riverdale zoo.

Hearts Get First Win Oakville the Victims

Georgetown's bantam soccer team the Hearts, still smarting from 6-1 mauling at the hands of Mimico Beaches last week in their season's opener, turned their wrath on Oakville Athletics Saturday and thumped the more experienced club 7 to 1 for their first win.

The Hearts were a completely revitalized team from the club that crumbled before the powerful Beaches. Most of the credit for the vast improvement is due to the coaching staff who worked feverishly with the Hearts after their dull debut. This combined with a natural ability that appeared in flashes in pre-schedule exhibitions kept the Oakvilles back on their heels for most of the contest.

Jim Blair, Bob White and First Baptist minister Rev. Lloyd Whit have been valuable additions to the coaching staff and were instrumental in turning the Oakville tide.

The Atom version of the Hearts who downed Hopetide 2 to 0 in their first clash last week will be trying to duplicate the feat of their older counterparts on Friday when they journey to Wallace Park for a game against the Oakville atoms. Game time is 7 p.m. and the team will meet at the IGA at 6.10 p.m.

Several members of the lodge attended an anniversary supper of Brantford Golden Star lodge and brought back glowing reports of the wonderful time they had. Two lodge members, Mrs. Bob Harris and Norreen Forgrave, who have been on the sick list, are on the road to recovery.

CONSERVATIVES MEET IN LOCAL COMMITTEE ROOMS

At a meeting of the local Conservative Association last Monday night, held in the committee rooms on Mill Street final arrangements were made for the election campaign.

Brochures and blotters have been distributed to every home in Georgetown, and the number of posters proclaiming 'Hall for Halton' was commented on. It was the general consensus of opinion that the distribution of posters, as well as the delivery of the door to door literature was more complete than ever.

It was decided to have the public invited to meet the long-time member for the county, Stan Hall at an informal get together next Monday night. This year with very large committee rooms it was decided to hold it there, and Mr. and Mrs. Hall will be present, as well as federal member, Sandy Best, and Mrs. Best. The evening will take the form of an informal get together, with Mr. Hall there to meet guests individually. It was hoped that there would be a large turnout. Polling places were gone over, and election day helpers. It was decided that all cars would operate from the committee rooms, which is located a block away from the Main Street, on Mill St., across from the Legion Hall, in the old Murt Allison Massey Harris building. phone has been installed. (TR. 7-2962) and it was stressed that any one wishing transportation should contact that number. The committee rooms are open daily and in the evening, and have been the scene of a steady flow of enquiries about election day. There is someone in the office at all times, and voters lists are available to check to see where you vote. Various members of the group mentioned that although the campaign had been quiet, interest was quickening and they hoped for a fairly heavy vote.
