Barber Trophy Stays in the Family at Cadet Inspection

A military trophy to a military leader from a military family. That was the story at the Georgetown high school annual cadet inspection at the park Tuesday, May 26 where Cadet Lt. Col. Tom Barber received the Col. Barber trophy symbolic of best all round cadet during the presentation of awards in the armory.

Only fitting was the fact that the trophy was presented by the man after whom it was named, Lt. Col. John R. Barber, who with Lt. D. R. Morrison of Oakville headquarters reviewed the cadet corps. The general proficiency trophies went to Capt. Walter Dixon and Cadet RSM John Cummins while Cdt. Sgt. Ron McGowan earned the honourable mention medal.

Police Investigate School Break-ins

For the second week in a row thieves have broken in to Wriglesworth public school and made off with minor loot.

The break-in, which occurred some time during Friday night or Saturday morning was discovered at 10.30 a.m. on Saturday by the caretaker, John Hughes, while he was cleaning the school. The burglars entered the building by breaking a window on the east side.

Only one room was ransacked and staplers, pens and cases, total value approximately $10, were taken. Last week a theft in the same room netted pilferers $12.50. Chief constable Roy Haley and Cst. Evan Rollins are investigating the break-ins.
