Choose Mrs. Velma Norris as President of County Institutes

One hundred and twenty six delegates from all over Halton county registered at the 58th annual convention of the Halton District Women's Institute held in the United Church, Acton, on Tuesday May 26th.

"Our Challenge" was the theme of the meeting and particularly stressed was the bearing of unity on understanding and accomplishment. The reports of the various convenors showed each branch filling the needs of their own community in caring for the aged, sick, retired children, hospitals, education and willing to help whenever a worthy cause was needed.

The president, Mrs. Velma Norris, in her report stated the farm accident survey had been undertaken by the institutes as a project and felt the program would make everyone more safety conscious. She also urged all branches to have the wording of the Mary Stewart Collect properly printed on each yearly program.

Mrs. Rinehart, the provincial director, brought greetings from the board and thanked everyone for their loyalty and support during her three years of office. She said a telegram of welcome would be sent to the Queen on her arrival in Canada in June. Plans are also in the offering to purchase the birthplace of the institute's founder Mrs. Hoodless.

On leaving the platform Mrs. Rinehart was presented with a beautiful Maple Leaf Brooch. She will be journeying to Scotland as a delegate to the ACWW in August. Mrs. Borgstrom asked the continued support of all branches toward "the Girls-Home-Baking Club."

"While the attendance was most gratifying," she said, "we must not rest on our laurels while there are still girls to be reached." The assembly with a hearty vote of thanks showed their appreciation of Mrs. Borgstrom's work on the Extension Service from which she is retiring.

Luncheon was served by the WA of the United Church whose minister Rev Adams welcomed the delegates, using as his text "In praise of worthy women." The afternoon session was mainly business and the slate of officers, was brought in by the convener of the nominating committee, Mrs. F. Smith.

The slate included, Honorary Pres. Mrs. G. Somerville, RR 2 Acton; president, Mrs. Velma Norris, RR 2 Milton; 1st vice president, Mrs. H. Wilson, Palermo; 2nd vice president, Mrs. J. Wallace Campbellville, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Guy Bussell, RR 1 Hornby; and federation representative Mrs. Frank Petch, Georgetown and alternate Mrs. A. Frank, Campbellville.

The district delegate is Mrs. V. Norris and alternate Mrs. H. Wilson and the auditors are Mrs. P. Merry, R R 1, Hornby and Mrs. C. Service, RR 3 Milton.

Agriculture and Canadian Industries, Mrs. William McIntyre RR 1 Acton; citizenship and education, Mrs. Thomas Alderson, RR 1 Hornby; home economics and health, Mrs. James Noble, Limehouse; public relations representative, Mrs. Lloyd Crawford, Campbellville; historical research and current events, Mrs. Fred Bell, RR 1 Burlington; resolutions, Mrs. H. Davis R R 3, Milton; music festival representative, Mrs. H. Bird, RR 3 Georgetown; federation of agriculture, Mrs. M. J. Readhead, RR 2 Milton.

Mrs. F. Cannons favoured with two solos and Mrs. D. Haight added a touch of humour with a portrayal of a busy farm wife preparing for an institute meeting. Mrs. Jaffares spoke briefly on the work being accomplished for the retarded children in Milton and district also the work shops in various cities. She urged members to attend their monthly meetings and become more familiar with their work.

It was again decided to donate a bursary to an institute member's son or daughter and if enough funds are contributed a second one will be made available. Mrs. Murray Mahon thanked everyone who helped make the annual success it was and the assembly adjourned to gather next year in the United Church in Lowville. Next year's hostess will be Mount Union women's institute.

JACK HENRY
YOUR CANDIDATE

The meeting ended with a hot meal served by Jim Murphy and his helpers.

We were most pleased to see Mrs. Tom Grieve able to be down to present her report and say hello to the boys. This is the first we have seen her about the branch since her unfortunate heart attack a few weeks ago, and although she did not stay too long, we are certain all the members appreciated the fact of her coming, and the fact that, she is still carrying on her job.

Another member, who has been greatly missed is our old friend Sam Tennant, who has been having a rough bout of illness, and who is also carrying on in his usual efficient way. Sam is out of hospital and able to get around, and it's good to have you back, Sam.

And now, as it has been some little time since we've stuck our neck out, we think we'll go out on a limb regarding our forthcoming hospital. It is our firm conviction, that the Branch should go into this approaching campaign for funds with "both feet" and give and raise funds for it "till it hurts." While we realize that the hospital is a necessity, and as soon as possible, we feel that too many people are merely inclined to be a bit apathetic about it, and willing to let "George do it" . . . and believe it when we say, in this case George is YOU, if you expect a hospital. With over four hundred members we are firmly convinced that our donation should be one of the largest, if not the largest.

The membership of the branch should back this project to the hilt, both from general funds, and by raising money through special projects. Both the bingo chairman (an ardent hospital fan himself) and the entertainment chairman showed eagerness to help. The members seemed willing to give and raise the money; it only remains to work out various ways to augment our funds, and to budget over a period of time, so that a maximum effort can be made.

And we should hate to think if a relatively small group (50-odd) can come out and promise to raise $25,000 dollars for this project, that a large, well to do organization such as the legion with almost ten times the membership should be found lacking in community spirit, indeed in the welfare of the district.

And as one last thought, we'd like you to think of the last time someone in your family, or a friend had to be rushed as an emergency case to a hospital some twenty representative outlined the farm safety survey being carried out in Ontario this year, and showed a film on traffic safety.

The programme under the director of chairman Hugh Bealy and secretary John Bird, included Miss Barbara Cunningham, soloist, and Archie Kerr and family provided a musical trio.

The meeting concluded with a question and answer period.

W. B. Rettle Addresses Toronto Milk Producers

J. A. F.

Mr. W. B. Rettle, president of the Dairy Farmers of Canada, outlined the work of the organization, to District 12, Toronto Milk Producers' Association, on Thursday, May 28th. At the meeting in Stewarttown Hall, Mr. Rettle stressed the importance of the Dairy industry. To hold the 18 billion pounds of milk produced in Canada last year, it would take a 500 mile long, 100 ft. wide and 100 ft. deep tank. In his remarks Mr. Rettle outlined the development of the advertising programme sponsored by the Dairy Farmers of Canada. The "June Is Dairy Month" campaign is being supported this year by the National Dairy Council and several industrial companies. The present advertising programme includes February as advertising month for condensed milk; April for fluid milk; June for all dairy foods; October as cheese month; and November for butter.

Dairy farmers are now producing more milk from fewer cows. Due to the nutritional qualities of dairy products, and the fact that milk products are economical food purchases, Mr. Rettle urged that producers support the advertising programme.

Mr. John Pawley, secretary-treasurer of the Toronto Milk Producers, reported on activities of the Association and developments being made in the Co-operative Milk Plant.

LEGION NOTES
by Les Clark

Now, my friends, there wuz a meeting as wuz a meeting!

We speak of the Legion monthly meeting last Thursday, one that was poorly attended but interesting. Two often over the past nine years, meetings have adjourned because there was evidently nothing to be brought up . . . too often have the very people who have the most to say in the beverage room, find themselves twiddling their thumbs in stony silence in a meeting, only to break forth enthusiastically later on in the club rooms, about what "they were goin' to say" . . . but alas, did 'not!

We do not advocate a return to the early postwar years, when it was fashionable to be kept fidgeting until 11.30 while some character drolled on about various unimportant trivia — but we do feel a happy medium should be met, say about an hour and a half meeting.

Last Thursday's was ideal in this respect and while the subject to the most important, we do feel it was a better meeting for all of that.

The two important items were the discussion re the moving of the cenotaph, and the hospital, a pair of subjects that will need a great deal of careful thought.

A committee has been set up to study the cenotaph question, and to make some explorations into locations, etc., with the town council.

The Hospital financial campaign came up a number of times and is to have a full dress discussion at the next meeting. Many of the members spoke, all in favour of the branch doing something big in this field, and any ideas or suggestions are to be put forward at the next meeting.

The dedication of the new Legion branch in Erin was discussed, and also the forthcoming zone parade in Brampton on June 7th. It was hoped a goodly number would be present for both affairs.

The meeting ended with a hot meal served by Jim Murphy and his helpers.

And while we're still thinking of spending money, we would judge that costs are soaring in the fireworks business too, by the number of displays that were cut down in this year's display. Next year we should think that there will have to be either an increase in amount spent on the display ($500 at present) or shop around and see if there is any other place we can get more for our money, something we doubt very much.

We should also like to see the power that be in Legion and the council give some thought to going over to an all aerial display, instead of the present fifty fifty ground and aerial combination. We rather think the kiddies might like the aerial better.

OFFICIATES AT WEDDING OF COUSIN IN SARNIA

Rev Morgan McFarlane of St. John's United officiated at the wedding of his second cousin Bernis McFarlane to William Schaeffer of Atlanta, Georgia, at Central United Church in Sarnia on Saturday May 23rd. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Phee McFarlane of Sarnia.

Mr. McFarlane was assisted by the resident minister Rev Bruce Gordon and after the ceremony a reception was held at Guildwood Inn. The bride and groom left by plane for a honeymoon in Nassau.

Mrs. McFarlane also made the trip to Sarnia to attend the ceremony.

five miles away . . . or the time you had to take the wife out of town when she had most inconveniently decided to have a baby at four thirty on a cold February morning, and the car wouldn't start, and you couldn't locate a cab . . . or in the last extremity (and believe me we can vouch for this one) when you're in a car crash, about four bodies lying about and the closest hospital that can treat you is twenty miles away . . . then is the time you really realize the value of a hospital right at home.

So how about digesting the above and when the campaign for funds for the Georgetown Hospital starts let's see Branch 120 right up at the top of the list with the biggest and best effort in the community . . . because, after all, it's only through really worthwhile achievements, that any organization, Legion included, can justify the respect and liking of his fellow citizens.
