CLUB MIDTOWN

by Dar

Yes, Yes!

Well, hi there! We went to the records Friday night and it was the big debut of our new PA system. We hope you enjoyed the music, as it was clearer and one could understand the words and music for a change.

Next week it's records again so come on along and join the gang. The cress is on sale now and the price is $1.00. Now a dollar isn't going to break you. It might break me but not you! Buy one and wear it on your jacket or just pin it up in your room.

These following records are my pick as the country's top ten upcoming hits.

1. Little Bitty Johnny, Travis and Bob; "Hush-hush"; the Mystics; 3 "Bong Rock" Preston Epps; 4. "It Was I", Skip and Flip; 5. "The Great Grandfather", Johnny Otis; 6. "Like a Tiger", Fabian; 7. "Lavender Blue" by Sammy Turner; 8. "The Wonder of You", Ray Peterson; 9. "Satisfied" Jackie Wilson; 10. "Jupiter C", Pat and the Satellites. This song is a terrific sound. I think you'll all flip over it.

Well that's about it for another week. I'll see you at Midtown on Friday night. Until then, live a little, but take it easy and remember the "golden rule."

Alliance Hands Glen First Fastball Defeat

Jim Golden and Clark Holmes connected for bases loaded home runs in consecutive innings last Tuesday as Alliance Mill blasted Glen Williams 18 to 5 to hand the league leaders their first defeat in five starts.

Gib Telford was equal to his hitters in striking out 12 Glenites. Both Telford and the bombarded Glen hurler Tom Peavoy went the distance in the free hitting contest that rocketed the co-actors into second place. Dillon caught for the mill while the Glen pitcher's brother Ken Peavoy worked behind the plate for the losers.

The game was played at the Glen's impressive new ball park which should be the scene of some exciting ball before the season is over.

While the Alliance were smothering their opponents Cotton Brothers took a 4-3 squeaker from Norval in town. A single by Don Wilson brought Trev Moore across with the winner in the 6th inning to snap a tight pitching battle between Cassidy of Cotton Brothers and Bernie Dor for Norval.

Hary Chappel of Cotton Bros. hit the only home run in the ball game in the 3rd inning with one on. Moore caught for Cotton Bros. Langraff for Norval.

Cotton Bros. downed Alliance 4-1 on Thursday to take their first win. Pomeroy and Boxford for Cotton Bros. over Telford and Leslie.

The Smith and Stone pitcher Fischer allowed just two hits but lost the game at the Glen Thursday as the home club kept their win string alive with a 3-2 victory. Peavoy was the Glen hurler and gave up just three hits. Junior Beaumont caught for the Glen, Hurst for Smith and Stone.

It was Glen 7, Norval 1 on Sunday due to some fancy hurling by Jack Kemshead who got the win. Lancaster and Langraff were the Norval battery while Bob Webster did plate duty for the Glen. George Burlington and Bill Richardson were ejected from the game in the top of the seventh inning for tangling.

Smith and Stone extended their winless streak to three games Sunday when Jamie Cunningham held them to three hits enabling Alliance to cop a 3-1 decision. Paterson and Hurst went the route for the losers, and Leslie was the Alliance catcher.

Legros wrote: "If Georgetown Kinsmen Club has had a successful year, and from their news bulletin it appears to be tops, I would say from this distance that bulletin editor Sam Meltzer has been a driving force. Sam in my opinion is Mister Kinsman across the nation. This is one special Kinsman I should like to meet."
