MARILYN GUEST WED IN TORONTO ON SAT.

St. Matthew's Anglican Church, Islington, was decorated with bouquets of white mums with orchid and pale green snapdragon and gladioli for the marriage of Marilyn Alice Guest, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Agar Guest, Churchhill Cres., Georgetown. When she became the bride of Dr. J. Douglas Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Douglas Webster of Toronto.

Rev. Merrill Cathart performed the double ring ceremony on Saturday, June 6 at three o'clock. Mrs. Donaldson was the organist and Mrs. T. Tarleton was the soloist, singing "O Perfect Love before the ceremony and The Lord's Prayer during the signing of the register. They are both members of St. Matthews.

The bride, given in marriage by her father chose a floor length gown of white nylon chiffon over delustered satin with brush train. The fingertip veil fell from a headpiece of beaded appliques on the fine lace on her gown. She carried a white prayer book, enhanced with a mauve orchid. She wore matching chiffon gloves and white pearlneck pumps and small gold cross.

Mrs. George Kenzie, Oakville, was matron of honour for her sister in a gown of orchid nylon chiffon over taffeta with matching hat and gloves and shoes. Her bouquet was of green tinted mums mixed with white. Mrs. Roy Guest, sister-in-law of the bride, and a friend of the bride Miss Shirley Fry were bridesmaids, gowned alike in pale green nylon chiffon over taffeta with matching hats, gloves and shoes, similar to that of the matron of honour. Their flowers were orchid tinted mums mixed with white.

Duncan Scott, a friend of the groom was groomsmen, Roy Guest, brother of the bride and Robert Morrison, Toronto, a friend of the groom were the ushers.

The wedding reception was held in the Royal Can. Engineers officers' lounge in For York armoures. Mrs. Guest received for her daughter in a gown of deep orchid chantilly lace over taffeta with matching accessories with a white carnation corsage. Mrs. Webster assisted her in a light beige silk organza and lace sheath with mint green accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

Dr. and Mrs. Webster are spending their honeymoon at Penn Hills Lodge, Pocono Mountains, Penn., and they will motor back through New York and the Thousand Islands. For travelling, the bride chose a blue sheath with a three quarter matching coat in silk organza with white and blue accessories and a corsage of white roses. They will live at 3882 Bloor Street West, Islington, where Dr. Webster operates his own practice.

The bride attended Georgetown public school and high school and was employed at the Bell Telephone, then attended Brampton Business College, moving to Toronto in 1953 to take a position in the Bank of Nova Scotia. At the time of her marriage she was employed as private secretary to W. R. Coulter, president and general manager of the Coulter Copper & Brass Company Limited.

BALLINAFAD BUS TRIP TO GODERICH FOR BALLINAFAD LADIES

The annual bus trip of the Women's Association and Women's Institute of Ballinafad district took about 35 ladies to Goderich this year where they toured the Sheaffer Pen Company and Salt Plant also the museum of natural and local history. The group was then entertained at afternoon tea at the Bayfield Golf Club operated by Mr. Fred Hulls, a brother of Mrs. Frank Smith a member of the tour.

On the return trip home they were shown through station CKNX radio and TV at Wingham and the end of a six to seven o'clock program. A most enjoyable and fitting conclusion to the wonderful day was when they stopped at Bluevale and visited with Alan Neelan, former student minister at Ballinafad. He took the group to view his church and there everyone joined in a sing-song of favorite hymns.

PAN-HALL HOLDS RALLY IN P.C. COMMITTEE ROOMS

Taking advantage of the large quarters that they are occupying for committee rooms, the local Conservative-Association held a party for their county standard-bearer last Monday night. An excellent crowd was present, filling the old Massey-Harris show-rooms to capacity.

The county president, Les Clark introduced the federal member, Sandy Best, who introduced Stan Hall to the gathering. Mr. Best spoke of the many accomplishments of Mr. Hall and the Hon. Leslie Frost and his P.C. government, and urged all P.C. supporters to get out on election day. "There's only one thing that could prevent a great victory again," said Mr. Best, and that's complacency on our part in getting out the vote."

Stan Hall, sitting member for Halton for fifteen years, spoke briefly and also stressed the hope everyone would get out to exercise their franchise. He enumerated a few of the accomplishments of the Frost government and particularly the many things accomplished in Halton. Mr. Hall brought the best wishes of his wife to that meeting, saying that she was unable to be present, as she had taken ill that day and was at present hospitalized. "It's not serious, though" and she'll be home to vote," quipped the member.

Mr. Hall, in what was obviously a reference to some of the wild promises made by the opposition during the past few weeks, said "you know, it's how you perform in looking after your constituents between elections that wins them, not the promises you make a few days before election," he promised to give the same energetic attention to the affairs of all the voters of the county in the future that he had in the past.

After the speeches, lunch and cold drinks were served by ladies of the association, and those present had a chance to chat with Mr. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Best.
