Steelworkers Union
Officer Minister's Luncheon Speaker

The final meeting of the Credit Valley Ministerial Association for the year always takes the form of a luncheon and this anticipated social event occurred on Wednesday, June 10th, at the Jack O' Lantern Restaurant in Georgetown. The dinner convened at 12:30 with the president, Rev. G. L. Royal, the Vice President Rev. Lloyd Whan and the secretary-treasurer Rev. L. N. Freel in charge.

The highlight of the meeting was an address delivered by Mr. Murray Cotterill, Public Relations Officer for the United Steel Workers of America and a member of the Religion and Labour Foundation. Mr. Cotterill's presence at the luncheon had grown out of concern on the part of the Ministerial in regard to the attitude of the Protestant Church to organized Labour. It had been felt over the years that the relationship between the two was of a very flimsy and sometimes antagonistic nature. Out of this concern grew a strong desire to meet with and speak to a Christian man who was deeply involved in the Trade Union Movement. Mr. Murray Cotterill was such a man for his background was one of energetic Christianity having been reared in the Methodist Church and eventually assuming a position on one of the committees of the United Church of Canada, Labour Relations, and at one time being Superintendent of the Sunday School at Kimbourne Park United Church Toronto.

Mr. Cotterill outlined the history of the Union movement stressing its roots in Great Britain during the Industrial Revolution of the 18th century. The speaker differentiated between the British type of Union and those found on the continent, especially in France and Germany. Mr. Cotterill said, "The British unions were organized as Protective Societies and received a great deal of their impetus from the Methodist revival which swept England in the days of John and Charles Wesley. Thus the British type union, which has its counterpart in Canada, is the only union movement that was really motivated from a religious root." The Protestant Churches and their leaders were largely made up of land-owners, factory owners, gentry, men of means and this had, in the course of years, led to a rather "down-glancing" as far as Labour Unions were concerned. Mr. Cotterill deplored the situation and hoped that the Protestant Churches would more actively try to understand the movement and make their voices heard in Labour councils. Mr. Cotterill was introduced by Mr. Douglas Brown and was thanked by Rev. Eric V. Warren. After the formal address a lengthy question period was enjoyed with the ministers throwing all manner of queries at their guest and receiving solid and assured answers in return.

The banquet was convened and arranged by the vice president, Rev. R. L. Whan, First Baptist Church, Georgetown. Other ministers in attendance were: Rev. B. A. Nevin, Boston and Omagh Presbyterian Churches; Rev. J. C. Hill, Hornby, Bethel and Ashgrove United Churches; Rev. J. E. Maxwell, Hornby, Norval and Stewarttown Anglican Churches; Rev. J. Rathbone, St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams; Rev. E. V. Warren, Huttonville, Churchville and Meadowvale United Churches; Rev. Walter Shell, Cheltenham and Belfontain Baptist Churches; Rev. L. N. Freel, Norval, Home and Glen Williams United Churches; Rev. G. L. Royal, Norval and Union Presbyterian Churches; Rev. D. C. Los, Christian Reformed Church, Georgetown; Rev. K. Richardson, St. George's Anglican Church, Georgetown; Rev. M. G. McFarlane, St. John's United Church, Georgetown; Mr. Douglas Brown, St. Andrew's United Church, Georgetown, and Rev. W. C. Murdock, retired.

PARK SCHOOL VISITS NIAGARA DISTRICT

by Helen Klingbeil

On Wednesday, June 10th, the students of Grade VIII Park Public School went on an excursion to the Niagara District. Leaving at 7:30 a.m. and travelling directly to the border, crossing it then proceeding to Fort Niagara where we were given a guided tour around the old fort. Afterwards proceeding to Whirlpool Park to eat our lunch.

We then travelled to Niagara Falls, N.Y. where we were given one hour of free time. Getting on the bus again we came back across the border and continued on to the Niagara Glen where we climbed down the steep cliff to the Niagara River. After retreating back up the cliff again we went to visit the locks at Port Weller where we saw some big ships. Later, we went to Burlington where we had our supper. Full, weary and tired we returned to Georgetown, but all, I think, would agree that we had a wonderful time.

LILAC TEA FEATURE OF ST. JOHN'S GUILD

We are glad to report that Mr. Bert Hunter is home from the hospital and hope for a complete recovery soon.

Friends of Danny McClean hope to see him home again soon from the hospital.

The Esqueing Women's Institute will hold their June meeting at the home of Mrs. Fred Armstrong on Thursday evening, on June 11th at 8 o'clock.

Several from the village attended a social evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hector Bird, 5th line, in honour of Mrs. J. J. Thompson, who having sold her farm recently, is moving to Georgetown.

The St. John's Guild had a very successful and enjoyable "Lilac Tea" which was held in the new basement of their church last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Townsend from Georgetown gave the address, Mrs. Donald Hancock, Glen Williams, soloist and Mrs. Haight of Oakville, elocutionist, supplied an excellent program. After which lunch was served and a sale of home made baking held. The ladies of the church and their minister and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Maxwell are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts to improve their church and new basement.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Topp (nee Edna Lawson) of Oak Ridges on the arrival of twin boys on June 1st.

The District annual meeting of Halkon County Women's Institute was held in Acton on Tuesday, May 26th in the United Church. Mrs. C. A. Grant, Mrs. Reg Williams and Mrs. Walter Lawson were the delegates from the Esqueing branch.

Mrs. Jos. Sanford has returned from a visit with her sister, Mrs. Heath, near Clarkson.

LIMEHOUSE

W.I. MEETING FEATURES TRIP TO BRANTFORD

Limehouse Memorial Hall on the afternoon of Thursday, June 4th was the scene of the regular meeting of Limehouse Women's Institute. Mrs. Roughly presided over the meeting which was opened with the Institute rally song, and the Mary Stewart collect.

Roll call was answered by the ten attending members with "an improvement, I would like to see in consumer goods." Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Mrs. Ted Brown, as well as the financial report.

It was agreed that as many ladies who were able, should motor to Brantford to visit with Miss Ivens. Six ladies made the trip. They enjoyed a wonderful drive, and a pleasant visit with Miss Ivens, to whom they presented a hymnary in memory of her sister, the late Mrs. John Newton who was a life member of Limehouse W.I.

Mrs. G. English, convener of Home Economics, presided for the remainder of the meeting, with Mrs. Smethurst as convener for current events. Mrs. Kirkpatrick spoke, using the motto: "It takes face powder to catch a man, but baking powder to hold him."

Reports of the district annual meeting held in Acton recently, were given by Mrs. Frank Brown, Mrs. Jas. Noble and Mrs. W. Mitchell. The meeting closed with the National Anthem, after which lunch was served by Mrs. English and the social committee.

WILL MEET QUEEN

An English couple who have relatives in town will be presented to Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh on a royal visit to Africa this December.

They are Dr. and Mrs. George Blyth—he is a cousin of Mrs. William Chaplin and the Blyth family. Dr. Blyth is studying native diseases in Gambia and is stationed at the M.R.C. Laboratory at Fagara near Bathurst.

Here's one for the road

A back-country couple were being married — and the groom was just reciting "With all my worldly goods I thee endow" when a friend whispered to another:

"Well, there goes Pete's rifle. Somebody stole his dog last week."

If you'd like to count a dependable used car among your worldly goods — now's the time to see us. We've got a choice selection to show off — and all have been put in top mechanical condition. Come on down and look them over.

The emotions of being a father...

The world is a scene of many changes. Every day fresh knowledge extends our horizons. New inventions create fresh wonders. New discoveries shape new opinions.

But some things are little affected by external changes. The emotions of being a father, for example, stay constant through the ages.

The hopes and fears... the wishes and apprehensions. The humbling realization that no other task in all the world carries with it so grave a responsibility, so rewarding a victory as that of being a father.

For where else does a boy look...
... for strength of will and love of goodness?
... for those words and teachings that will open wisdom's way?
... for a held-out hand, a haven in every sudden storm?
Where else but to a father, who knows that every son is a miracle, like daily light.
The emotions of being a father never change. They flow from well-springs deep within us, as old and changeless as instinct itself. More than anything else Fatherhood is guidance and wisdom — the wisdom of setting a good example in thought, in word, in deed. And one principle that surely deserves to be exemplified is the practice of Moderation in all things. It is this thought which The House of Seagram wishes to leave with you on this Father's Day, 1959. May it enrich your life with happiness, and your son's thereafter.
