Alliance Mill Employee Francis Wood Former

After a lengthy illness, Francis Wood passed away at St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on June 8th, 1959. Born in Kincardine, February 27th, 1882, he was the son of Annie Harding and Francis Wood.

In 1904, living on the Eighth Line, Georgetown, he married Minnie Blair, moving into town when he was employed at J. N. O'Neill's Carriage Works, later going to the Alliance Paper Mills where he worked for over thirty years. For many years he was an active member of the Loyal Orange Lodge, also the Black Knights.

Surviving him are his wife, one son Harry of Toronto and a daughter Lenore (Mrs. Omer Wilson) of Toronto. He also leaves five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. A daughter Alice predeceased him ten years ago.

Rev. Lloyd Whan of First Baptist Church conducted the funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home on Thursday, June 11th at two o'clock. The pallbearers were Joseph Hall Jr., Fred Armstrong, Edgar McKinnon, Jack Cain, George Ingles and Albert Dawson. Interment was in Greenwood cemetery, Georgetown.

CLUB MIDTOWN

by Dar

Hi! Friday night we went once again, to the records I hope you had a good-time, I know I did.

Thursday night we had our Midtown elections. When the voting was over we had as — President, Mike Willingham; vice president, Yours Truly; secretary treasurer, Linda Korzak; advertising manager, Dave Jones.

Executive: Dorothy Thompson, Barb Lusty, Maureen Hepburn, Phil Wade, Grant Casely, John Benham, Jim Goodlet, Jr.

This Friday we are having a jive and fox trot contest. So polish up your footwork and come on up and join in on the festivities.

Any suggestions you have about the dance are welcomed by us, so feel free to let us know.

My predictions for this week are: by Duxne Eddy with "40 Miles of Bad Road" and The Whalers, and "The Tall Cool One."

Midtown will continue throughout the summer and there will be hayrides, trips, and many other good things. Stay with us and have a lot of fun.

Until next week, smile, take care and have a good time during the holidays.

SAM MACKENZIE CARDS 38 GOLF MEN'S DAY.

A 38 carded by Sam Mackenzie at the North Halton Golf & Country Club during Men's Day last Thursday, June 18th gave him low gross on the day's play. Low net was registered by Stu Young, Bill Anderson and Gord King.

Duffers still eyeing the club championship and top honours in B and C flights are reminded to play their qualifying round before or on June 29th.

Pentecostal Minister Moving to Lucan Post

Rev. Ronald Hall will preach his farewell sermon Sunday morning in Zion Tabernacle. Mr. and Mrs. Hall will be leaving early next week for Lucan where he will be pastor of the Pentecostal Tabernacle there.

Succeeding him will be Rev. Byrnal Graham, who with his wife and young son are moving to town from Ottawa. The two men were ordained at the same time two years ago.

A student minister when he first came to town, Mr. Hall has served the local church for three years. He is a graduate of Rhode Island Bible School, was married shortly after coming to town and was ordained two years ago.

Mr. Graham, whose father is a former pastor of the Milton Pentecostal church, is a graduate of Holmes Bible College in the southern USA.

During Mr. Hall's pastorate, he has seen his church move from its location in the old Brill Hosiery building to the present building on Guelph Street, the former home of Jack McMenemy. An original membership of seven families has grown to 20; Sunday School attendance now averages over forty children.

Church members bid farewell to the Hall on a recent Saturday evening when they attended a party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Darby, John Street East, one of the couples whom Mr. Hall has married during his pastorate. They were presented with a beautiful oil painting.

BALLINAFAD

PIANO RECITAL IN BALLINAFAD CHURCH

Mrs. J. W. Snow, Miss Janie Given and Miss Lydia Snow visited relatives in London and Sarnia over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Himes were in Toronto and Queensville for the week visiting with their family.

On Saturday evening the pupils of Mrs. McLaughlin gave a piano recital in the church, and there was a splendid turn out of parents and interested friends. Mrs. McLaughlin is to be congratulated on the fine program presented by her class which includes the following: Vickie Ballentine, Dini and Mary Vanhorne, Louise and Dianne Snow, Ann Shortill, Karen and Dorothy Ann O'Rourke, Catherine Sinclair, Carolyn McEnery, Mary Baker, Sandra McLaughlin, Sharon Allen, Marilyn Madill, Shirley Spiece, Bobby and Billy Black, Paul Kidney and Andy Spiece. A film entitled "Children's Concert" was also presented and illustrated how an orchestra is formed and it was both interesting and educational to music lovers. At the closing of the evening's program, Mary Baker and Karen O'Rourke on behalf of the pupils presented their teacher with a gift and Mrs. McLaughlin thanked everyone and she then presented a gift to Shirley Spiece who had helped her so much in planning the recital each year.

SORRY!

A space shortage precludes including accounts of the Mission Band, Woman's Association and Mission Society meetings with this week's news budget. These accounts will appear in next week's Ballinafad news column.

Georgetown Resident Over Quarter Century

Mrs. Mary Storey Ward, wife of the late William H. Ward, died at Centennial Manor, Milton, on June 19th at the age of eighty-nine. Prior to going to the Manor, Mrs. Ward lived at 53 John Street East. Born in Cheltenham, Mr. and Mrs. Ward came to Georgetown in the early 1900's. She was a member of St. John's United Church.

Two sons Floyd, Glen Williams, and Roy of Georgetown survive their parents as do five grandchildren.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane conducted the funeral service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home, 24 Edith Street, on Monday, June 22nd. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. Pallbearers were Gordon and Clarence Spence, Howard Garvin, Norman Button, Clarence Walters and Jack Cain.

FIRE GUTS TWO ROOMS IN GLEN WILLIAMS HOME

Two new rooms recently added to the Glen Williams home of Norm Logan were gutted by fire early Tuesday after noon.

Damage estimated at close to $2,000 resulted from the blaze which fire chief Jack Harlow believes started from a faulty electrical appliance in the kitchen. The other room charred by the fire was an adjoining bedroom.

The neighbouring home of Wes Finlay though close to the blaze was at no time in danger and firemen concentrated their efforts on saving the remaining rooms. They pumped the water from the branch of the Credit River which bypasses the house.

Mrs. Charlie Shepherd, Terra Cotta, noticed smoke pouring out of the Logan house when she was driving by and immediately alerted Mrs. Inglis who turned in the alarm. No one was in the house when the fire broke out.
