BALLINAFAD
W.I. MEETING FEATURES HISTORY OF CHURCH

The July meeting of the Ballinafad W.I. was held in the evening at the home of Mrs. Lloyd McLean. The meeting opened in the usual way with Mrs. Jesse McEnery presiding. After the business portion of the meeting the convener of historical research, Mrs. R. McEnery took over. Current events were given by Mrs. R. B. Kirkwood. Mrs. William Kirkwood gave the motto "each generation has its part to play in the making of a new world."

Mrs. R. McEnery gave an excellent reading on the autobiography of a church written by Mrs. Richard Shortill. It was referring to the old Methodist Church which had been a landmark in the village.

After the singing of O Canada and the Queen Lurch was served by the committee assisted by the hostess.
