POLICE NEWS

"Childhood has no forebodings, but then it is soothed by no memories of outlived sorrows."
English proverb.

DRIVERS TAKE HEED.

If you don't do anything else today, please read this letter.

Dear Driver:
A few weeks ago, I saw a little girl struck by a car as she tried to cross the street. I saw a father face toward her and hold her to him as she struggled in the agony of death. I saw all the plans that had been made for her dashed away, and I saw the look of despair that came over his face. I could only offer a prayer that such a thing might never happen again.

Today my daughter, who is six years old, started off to school. Her cocker spaniel, whose name is Scout, watched her leave and whined his belief in the folly of education.

Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her, a girl with yellow curls, and the boy across the aisle who makes faces, about the teacher who has eyes in the back of her head, about the trees in the school yard, and about the big girl who does not believe in Santa Claus.

We talked about a lot of things—tremendously vital and important things.

Now, as this is written, she is sound asleep with her doll in her arms. When her doll gets broken or her finger cut or her head gets bumped, I can fix them too, but when she starts across the street—then, Mr. Driver, she is in your hands.

Much as I wish I could, it's not possible for me to be with her all the time, I have to work to pay for her home, her clothes, her education.

So Mr. Driver, please help me to look out for her. Please drive carefully. Please drive slowly past schools and intersections. And please remember that sometimes children run from behind parked cars. Please don't run over my little girl.

With deepest thanks for what ever you can do for her.

I am, very sincerely yours
FATHER.

This letter was written to the Elmira (N.Y.) Advertiser, which observes: "If any driver can resist its appeal, he has no business with a drivers license."

Description of a Policeman
If he's neat—he's conceited.
If he's careless—he's a bum.
If he's pleasant—he's a flirt.
If he's brief—he's a grouch.
If he hurries—he overlooks things.
If he takes his time—he's lazy.
If you get pinched—he's had it in for you.
If he's energetic—he's trying to make a record.
If he's deliberate—he's too slow to catch a cold.
If you strike him—he's a coward.
If he strikes you back—he's a bully.
If he outwits you—he's a sneak.
If you see him first—he's a bone-head.
If he makes a good catch—he's lucky.
If he misses it—he's a simp.
If he gets promoted—he's got pull.
If he doesn't—ah what's the use.

MACKENZIE, RAND TIE FOR LOW GROSS

Sam Mackenzie and Don Rand tied with a low gross score of 37 on Men's Day at the North Hutton Golf & Country Club, Thursday.

Five duffers, Norm Marchmont, Phil Zambra, A. Sanderson, Wil Bradley and Bill Anderson shared low net honours. This Thursday's men's day will be a special affair when the electrical workers invade the local links for Smith and Stone night.

The draws for the club championship are posted on the notice board in the club house and B and C flight golfers are urged to make a note of their matches and play off as soon as possible.

Church, School Ladies Provide Manor Entertainment

Between two and four o'clock on Monday afternoon, June 8, the residents spent a very happy time in the company of a number of very friendly and generous ladies from Oakville. These ladies were members of Groups 2 and 4 of the W. A. of St. John's United Church in Oakville. Mrs. F. C. Thomas was the convener of this pleasant event. At two o'clock the residents were taken on enjoyable little automobile tours around Milton and the adjacent countryside in cars driven by the Oakville ladies. Returning to the dining-room of the Manor, the residents enjoyed a social hour with the visitors. Led by Mrs. Thomas and accompanied by Mrs. Radley on her accordion, the visitors and residents joined voices in community singing. Mrs. Radley played several accordion solos also. A most delicious lunch was then served. Two attractive birthday cakes, one of which was topped with lighted candles, lent a festive air to the scene. Explaining that the birthday cakes were in honour of everyone present, Mrs. Thomas asked Mrs. N. Given to blow out the candles. Sandwiches, gingerale, ice-cream and the birthday cakes were then served. Before leaving the Manor, the ladies left two gifts with each resident. Each woman resident received a prettily wrapped cake of soap and a Dixie cup filled with cookies, while each man resident received shaving lotion and a Dixie cup of cookies. The friendliness and generosity of these gracious visitors made a deep impression on the residents and future visits would be keenly anticipated.

On Tuesday evening, June 9, the residents had an opportunity to renew their acquaintance with the members of the Burnhamthorpe Ladies Home and School Choir. The residents had first heard this fine choir at the Christmas party given for them at Holy Rosary School in December and were very glad to have an opportunity to greet them again. The choir is connected with the Home and School association of the Burnhamthorpe public school. On this occasion, as in December, Mrs. P. Feast was the very capable conductor and Mrs. A. Savage the equally capable accompanist. The president of the choir, Mrs. N. Moore, was also present. There were fifteen visiting ladies in all. The program was presented in three portions. The first and third portions were made up of choral numbers while the second or intervening portion was a very humorous skit directed by Mrs. E. Sanderson. The first group of five choral numbers included Tammy, Autumn Leaves and Oh, What a Beautiful Morning. The last group was made up of sacred selections, which included Nobody Knows but the Lord and May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You. The intervening skit was most amusing. It depicted four charwomen engaged in the task of mopping up the stage of a theatre after an evening performance. Each charwoman gave an exhibition of the particular talent she thought she possessed—acting, singing, playing the piano and ballet dancing. The acting was so natural and realistic and the dialogue so humorous that the entire skit was heartily enjoyed by the very appreciative audience. A pleasant social period was spent with these ladies when soft drinks and cookies were served. An added touch of humour was enjoyed when Mrs. N. Moore recited Albert and the Lion at the close of the evening.

Friday night, June 1, found the residents making the acquaintance of a very friendly and hospitable group of young people in the persons of seven members of the Young People's Society of St. Paul's United Church in Oakville. It was a pleasure for the residents to meet, in addition to the young people, the minister of their church, Rev. George Watt, B.A., B.D., who had made the arrangements for the meeting. The president of the group, Miss Betty Warlow was among those who came. The entertainment took the form of three motion picture films before the showing of the first film, Mr. Watt extended greetings from the group to the residents. The first film featured a barber shop quartette singing a number of old ballads in which the audience was invited to join. The third film depicted the antics of three bear cubs and was called Three Little Bruins on a Spruce. The high light of the evening, however, was the showing of the coloured film Canada at the Coronation. While watching it the audience witnessed again the thrilling scenes of the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II on June 2, 1953. This film was of special interest due to the fact that our Queen will be touring Canada this summer. During the social hour that followed an enjoyable time was spent by the visitors and residents in getting acquainted. Delicious refreshments of ice-cream and cookies brought by the visitors and soft drinks provided by the Manor were served. A speech of thanks by Muriel Thompson was responded to by Mr. Watt, who expressed the pleasure that the whole evening had given to the visitors, and by Miss Warlow, the president. The residents hope that these newly formed friendships will be strengthened by further visits from this fine group of young people.

Rev. E. Orsborn's sermon at the church service in the chapel on Sunday afternoon, June 14, was based on the parable of the labourers in the vineyard as told in Chapter 20 of St. Matthew's Gospel. Mr. Orsborn explained that in order to understand this parable we must understand the circumstances surrounding it. The rich young man had recently come to Jesus and had been told to sell all his possessions and follow Him. The disciples wished to know their own situation and to make it clear to them Jesus told this parable. This parable teaches us that work done in the service of God must be voluntary for we cannot make a bargain with God. We can all

CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION SCHOLARSHIP

by J. A. F.
The Canadian National Exhibition will award ten Scholarships in 1959, each to the value of $600. One scholarship will be awarded to each Province. This year the scholarship will be awarded to a boy wishing to take a degree in Agriculture or Veterinary science. In selecting the winner of the scholarship, each County will nominate one candidate. In order to be eligible for the scholarship, the candidate must be 17 years of age; have completed at least two years in 4-H Club work; have qualities for leadership; and have shown interest in community activities.

Those interested in being considered for the candidate from Halton County, should notify the Ontario Department of Agriculture, Milton, previous to July 13th.

Safety was a word to Jim, Aimed at others, not at him. William, on the other hand, Practised safety on his land.

Jim drove his tractor like a jet, Certain he would not upset. William drove his with great care. Of its dangers—well aware.

Jim was always having falls On broken ladders, pitchforks, walls. Will was healthy, careful, wise On safety he'd not compromise.

Jim left this world the sudden way While blowing up some stumps one day. Wise William's living out his days Because he knows that safety pays!
