Mrs. Ward Brownridge Hostess At WMS Picnic

The W.M.S. Mission Band and Baby Band picnic was held at the home of Mrs. Ward Brownridge on Tuesday afternoon, July 28 with a goodly number of mothers, and children present. The president opened with a hymn and prayer, also a short devotional on a summer worship service with Karen Bridgen assisting with suitable readings. Mrs. John McNabb told the story of the Bull that Went to Sunday School with his Little Master. The offering was taken up by Ellen Hunter and Margaret Brownridge. After the closing hymn and prayer the Mission Band leaders Mrs. Murray Bridgen and Mrs. James Carney sold articles from a talent table to help the finances of the Mission Band after which everyone went out to the lovely tree-shaded lawn and while the children ran races, the ladies enjoyed contests and skits prepared by Mrs. Bruce McClure, leader of the Baby Band. Lunch was served ending with a treat of grand watermelon. Mrs. Cecil Wilson thanked the hostess and everyone who had helped to make the afternoon a pleasant one.

In summer, when the sun is hot, I do not care for heat a lot, in winter quite the other way, I have to have it every day. Now truly doesn't it best the Dutch.
 That July and August has too much
 And February seldom a bit, Of this vital prerequisite.
 (The Young People had a picnic on Sunday afternoon to Barber's Beach.

Friends, Church Group Have Showers For Bride

Prior to her marriage on June 27th to Blake Baxter, Marilyn Cunningham was feted by friends at a number of showers.
 Hosting miscellaneous showers for the bride-to-be were Mrs. Jack Reid and Mrs. Art Roberts at the home of Mrs. Reid, Miss Eleanor Shaughnessy of Toronto and fellow workers at A. V. Roe, Mrs. Stanley Carr of Willowdale, and the Norval Presbyterian Church ladies. She received a carving set from the 'choir members' and an electric frying pan from friends at Avro.

Rev. Charles Donald is New St. Andrews Minister

Mr. Douglas Brown, B. Sc. preached his final sermon at St. Andrew's United Church on Sunday, July 28th. He will be doing church survey work in the Oakville area until he returns to Emmanuel College in September.
 Rev. Charles D. Donald, B.A., B.D., D.D. has taken over from Mr. Brown. Born in Toronto he was educated in Lindsay public and high schools, the University of Toronto and Knox College. He was ordained in 1915 and went to India to serve as a missionary until 1931. He married Fannie Reid

Nugent whose father was a medical missionary there and in 1945 a son, Douglas was killed in action while serving with the RCAF.
 Another son, Jim, lives in Toronto and a daughter Barbara is married and resides in Mississippi, USA. From 1931 to 1939 Dr. Donald was minister of St. Andrew's United Church in Sault Ste. Marie where Douglas Brown became a member. From 1939 to 1959 he served in Southminster United Church in Ottawa. He is a Mason and a Rotarian and at present resides in Oakville.
