ATTEND JAZZ FESTIVAL

BILL HARDMAN

PHIL WADE

Two local young men had an interesting trip to Chicago last week, where they attended a jazz festival sponsored by Playboy Magazine. Bill Hardman, 8 Normandy Blvd., and Phil Wade, 7 Keats Ave. were among those attending the festival which took place at the Hotel Sheraton there.

Joan Elizabeth Reid Wed To W. Mackenzie Stevenson

Standards of white and pink gladioli and chrysanthemums decorated Norval United Church on Saturday, July 18th for the wedding of Joanne Elizabeth Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weir M. Reid, of Norval to W. L. Mackenzie Stevenson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lisle Stevenson of Granton.

Rev. L. Freel officiated at the ceremony and the soloist, Mrs. David Johnstone of Humber Summit, sang "Where'er You Walk" and "I'll Walk Beside You," accompanied at the organ by Miss Elaine Laird of Norval.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of white silk organza, fashioned with an Empire waistline. The long-sleeved bodice of lace was trimmed with sequins and pearls, and appliques of matching lace and sequins adorned the full skirt. Her bouffant fingertip veil hung from a lace headpiece encrusted with pearls and sequins, and she carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white gladioli.

Miss Mary Reid sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her waltz-length dress was of turquoise silk organza, with cap sleeves, a fitted bodice, and a full skirt. She wore matching shoes and picture hat, and carried a Colonial bouquet of white and pink gladioli.

Two little page boys, Douglas and David Reid, nephews of the bride, were dressed in white, with wine jackets. Bill Stephens of Science Hill was best man and Ken Reid, brother of the bride, and Jim Evans, brother-in-law of the groom, were ushers.

The reception was held in the church hall. The bride's mother greeted the guests wearing a dress of blue lace with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. She was assisted by the groom's mother, who wore a dress of white and navy printed silk with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

For travelling, the bride chose a green printed ensemble with white accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. On their return from a short trip eastward, the young couple will live on the groom's farm at R R 4, Stratford.

Education Value is Stressed by Speaker

Milton lawyer, George Elliott, was the guest speaker at this month's Terra Cotta Farmers Club held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Laverne Thompson on Monday, August 3rd. Mr. Elliott spoke to the group on education, stressing the fact that parents should grasp the importance of their child's education. He was introduced by Mrs. Peter Dick of Brampton.

Mrs. Gord Cation of Cheltenham entertained the meeting with a humorous reading and the ladies' portion was highlighted by Mrs. Alex Dolson's account of her trip to the West Coast. The roll call was responded to with "if you had an hour to spend, how would you spend it", after which Clarence Anderson explained the major medical and hospitalization plan. Everyone taking part in the meeting was thanked by Roy Thompson at its conclusion.
