For the second successive week the Hotspurs have bowed to the powerful Ranger club in little league soccer cup action at the park. On Wednesday the Rangers blanked the Spurs four goals to nil to put their rivals on the ropes leaving Sparta as their only serious contender.

The Rangers have a well balanced club with several potential Atom Hearts on their roster, and if they maintain the form they have been showing during the past few weeks it appears they will add the cup to their conquests which now boast the league pennant.

The Hotspurs, however, with their backs against the wall flexed their muscles Saturday morning to dump Sparta 3 to 1. Both teams displayed high calibre soccer but the Spurs seemed to have that little extra and the 3-1 outcome gave a fair indication of the play.

A lull in the Bantam and Atom Hearts schedule has made possible an exhibition game arranged for Saturday evening in the park which will bring together the Atom Hearts and a team of all-stars from the little league.

Heinz Richter will coach the all-stars comprising — Bennett, goal; D. Ahlstedt, right back; M. Llewellyn, left back; P. Wright, centre half; R. Currie, left half; G. Lauppe, right half; S. Llewellyn, outside right; R. Richter, inside right; T. Kynnersley, centre forward; Severs, outside left; and R. Vinden, inside left. The reserves are Mike Cann and R. Lenz.
