Frank Wilson and Elizabeth Gibson Wedding Vows in Ballinafad United Ballinafad United Church was the scene of the wedding on Saturday, September 26th, 1959, of Margaret Elizabeth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gibson, R. R. 1, Glen Williams who was united in marriage with Francis McCullough Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson, R. R. 3.

The church was decorated with standards of white mum and red carnations two large sword ferns flanked the standards and the pews were decorated with white satin bows.

Rev. Duncan E. Foster, great uncle of the bride, assisted by Mr. Murray McBride officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. John Black was organist and Mr. Alan Neelon of Bluevale was soloist, singing the "Wedding Prayer" after the bridal party had entered the church and "Because" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown with a fitted bodice of lace, the sabrina neckline was outlined in fine net and trimmed with iridescent coloured pallies and seed pearls. The long sleeves ended in points over the wrists. The floor length bouffant skirt of lace had a tunic effect of scalloped ruffling encircling the skirt and a flowing fullness of fine net in the lower half of the skirt. Her fingertip veil of silk illusion was caught to a tarr of seed pearls and coloured sequins. She carried a cascade bouquet of velvety red yuletide roses, intertwined with white stephanotis and a maidenhair fern on a white bible.

Maid of honour was her sister Marjorie and her cousin Marilyn Delaney was the wee flower girl. They were gowned alike in dresses of red embroidered taffeta with low neck and full skirts.

They wore white feathered hats and white net gloves. The maid of honour carried a cascade bouquet of red and white carnations with maiden hair fern and the flower girl carried a nosegay of dainty white pinocchio poms. Master Lorne Wilson, nephew of the groom carried the rings on a white pillow.

George Wilson acted as the groomsmen for his brother and the ushers were Dunc Gibson, brother of the bride and Earl Wilson cousin of the groom. Mr. McBride acted as toastmaster at the reception which was held in the basement of the church.

The bride's mother received, wearing a sheath dress of peacock blue embroidered peau de soie with accessories to match and a corsage of pink sweet heart roses. The groom's mother assisted wearing a gray arnel sheath dress with bolero and accessories to match and a corsage of tawny gold roses.

Two honoured guests at the wedding were the bride's grandmother Mrs. D. Gibson and the groom's grandmother Mrs. W. H. McCullough. Both wore corsages of white pinocchio poms.

The organist wore a corsage of white mums.

For their honeymoon trip to Nova Scotia the bride chose a suit of blue gabardine with accessories to match. Her corsage was of white gardenias. On their return they will reside on the groom's farm, R. R. 3, Georgetown. Guests were present from Hamilton, Guelph, Rochester, Detroit, Brampton, Georgetown, Hanover, Orton, Alton and districts.
