FRANKLIN ROUSE

The city slicker and his country girl friend were walking through a field, when they saw a bull and a cow rubbing noses in bovine affection. "Ah," he said, "watching the girl for her reaction, the very sight of that makes me want to do the same thing."

"Go ahead," she replied. "It's father's cow and he won't mind."

Well, that wasn't quite the reaction he was looking for. But I think you'll react favorably to the used car "buys" we're offering right now. Why not come down and look them over?

Don't leave it to the Sunday School Teacher!

If your child is to have a proper sense of moral and spiritual values, he must also learn at home. Don't adopt a "Do as I say, not as I do" attitude with your child or the Scripture's teaching will be very hard for him to understand. Don't leave the spiritual instruction of your child to the Sunday School and Church, but let the Church and Sunday School help you complete this task of instruction.
