Jay's Photo Studio Opens in Georgetown

The former G&S Television premises on Main Street north has been converted into a photo studio — the first such business since the days of the late Henry Sherman who was Georgetown's last full time photographer.

Operator of the new Jay's Studio is John Jolivet of Erin, who is combining his business here with one which he has been conducting there for some time.

A native of Winnipeg, Mr. Jolivet has made photography his career since 1937. He was in the army during the war, and in 1945 started into commercial work in earnest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jolivet live near Erin, and are parents of a six year old son Norman.

Combine Coffee Shop With New Lions Bakery

Pastry gourmets will have any special request filled at no extra charge. This is the invitation extended to the Georgetown public by the town's latest pastry house, Lions Bakery, who opened their doors exactly three weeks ago today.

The shop is operated by Lou and Ed Wegner, both experienced bakers, who accumulated their multi-style baking know how in Germany, Switzerland, Denmark, and France before coming to Canada some two and a half years ago. The Lions Bakery, which acquires its name from the trade symbol of two lions holding a pretzel, as familiar in Europe as the barber pole here, is unique locally in that it incorporates a coffee shop where customers may relax and actually watch donuts being made. The proprietors worked in shops in Winnipeg and Toronto before coming here, and taking up residence at 31 Charles Street, the Lions Bakery is located at the corner of Young & Market Streets, opposite the Legion.

Students Attend Stratford Festival

Two busloads from Georgetown high school were among 2200 high school students who attended a performance of As You Like it at the Stratford festival last Tuesday.

The group, some 65 strong, had their lunch on the bus enroute, with supper in a Stratford restaurant, following the matinee performance. Mrs. J. L. Lambert and Paul Legge of the teaching staff and Ernest Forgrave of the high school board were chaperones for the trip.

Besides viewing the performance, students had a chance to meet the members of the cast afterwards, when they appeared on stage to answer questions and give some of the behind-scenes theatrical background.

50 50 BOWLING

The 50-50 Bowlers started their schedule on Friday at the Lucky Strike.

No records were broken, but attendance was good and the members are looking forward to an enjoyable season.

HOW'S YOUR I.Q.?

TODAY'S INSURANCE PROBLEMS ANSWERED

Question — An irresponsible driver claims he doesn't need insurance because he has no property. If he had an accident he'd leave the country. How far would he be pursued for judgment?

Answer — No limit; he is liable wherever he and his property can be found. But the only one who "pursues" him is the person who holds the judgment, or his lawyer.
