I.O.D.E. Members Assist Again At Blind Booth at Fall Fair

Members of the local IO.D.E. will again be assisting at a booth for the blind at the fall fair this year where hand made aprons, purses, etc. will be on sale. The daughters announced their charity plan at a meeting on Monday, Sept. 14 at the home of Mrs. Edwin Hall, 16 Margaret Street, the regent, Mrs. Leslie Clark, presiding.

The prayer of the order opened the meeting and Mrs. John Mathies placed the standard. The minutes were read by Hilda Erwin and in the absence of the secretary Ruth Evans gave the treasurer's report, informing the members that $10 officers fees had been sent to the National treasury and that the chapter had started a hospital fund.

A letter of appreciation was read from Mrs. Robert Reichardt of Aurora for the cup and saucer received from the chapter as a parting gift, also expressing the pleasure she had in belonging to the chapter. Mrs. Reichardt was social convener, and Mrs. Denny Charles will

Funeral in Milton for Mrs. Ron Featherstone

Joan Elizabeth Featherstone, wife of Ronald Featherstone, died suddenly early Monday morning, September 7th in Haliburton Hospital. She was the niece of Mrs. Howard Wigglesworth, 20 James Street.

Born on lot 11, concession 10, Trafalgar, she was the daughter of Elmer and Florence May, and attended McCurdy Public School and Milton and Oakville high schools and after graduating from Shaw's Business College she served in the registry office in Milton. She is survived by Ronald Featherstone, whom she married on July 28th, 1951, a daughter Sandra Anne, her parents, a sister, Mrs. Charles Thompson (Louise) of Milton, and a brother, Paul, at home. She was a member of St. Paul's United Church, Milton, where the funeral service was held on Wednesday, September 9th. Rev. J. L. Graham, conducted the service and the pallbearers were Charles Fay, Ted Stover, Lawrence Arbie, Neil Loomis, of Milton, Jack Fries of Eden, and a cousin, Douglas Wigglesworth of Georgetown.

A tourist was on his way to New York City and stopped to ask directions from a farmer at the roadside.
"Keep going straight ahead," said the farmer, "and you'll see it happening. I was up that way a few years back and saw it."
"Saw what?" asked the tourist.
"People RUNNING to work!"
You'll see a lot of people rushing down to our address these days, too. And no wonder! We have so many exceptional values in used cars right now - all safety tested, adjusted and serviced. Come on down and join the crowd. A "for instance" of what to expect is:
