

Schenectady Minister Preaches At St. Johns United Anniversary

On Sunday, October 25th, St. John's United Church held their 125th anniversary which was observed by special services of worship in the church. Rev. Herbert S. Mekeel, minister of 1st Presbyterian Church, Schenectady, New York, was the guest minister for this occasion.

Dr. Mekeel spoke at the three services of worship taking as his subjects at 9:30 a.m. "God was With Our Fathers" Text, 1 Kings, 8:57, at 11 a.m. "The Rock of Our Salvation" Text, Deut. 32:31, and at the evening worship at 7:15 p.m. "Dominion From Sea to Sea" Text, Psalm 72:8. All services were well attended with visitors from other places and sister congregations joining in the fellowship of worship. The choir under the direction of Mr. Kenneth Harrison gave outstanding leadership in the service of praise.

Following the evening service Dr. Mekeel again addressed a Youth Rally which was held in St. John's Memorial Hall. Young People attended from the Churches of Georgetown and surrounding areas. Again Dr. Mekeel gave a challenging address to the young people on the subject: "The Conquering Christ."

This keen warm hearted scholar of the church, well informed as to the circumstance of the Church and Christians today presented to the young people the challenge of the living Christ through the centuries, and the challenge of this Christ today with its clashing ideologies and persecution of Christians that exceeds any time in the history of the Christian Church.

He emphasized that this challenge was a personal one and required the complete giving of themselves to Christ to do his will — asking them if they were ready to do this for Jesus Christ.

Musical numbers were given by members of the choir. Following the meeting lunch was served.

ASHGROVE Acton, Laurel Ministers Ashgrove Speakers

Well! Halloween the big night for the kiddies is over. Black witches, ghosts, spooks, and a very real like bandit complete with gun came calling at our door holding out their bags for treats. We guessed the most of them under their weird costumes, the boy in his fetching blue dress, the one in a binder twine skirt, and the ghost in her all-white outfit. After all it is their night and they do enjoy it.

The 99th anniversary service of our church was an joyed on Sunday with friends and guests from other places worshipping with us. Beautiful bronze and yellow mums were the floral decorations, Special anthems by the choir and the solo "Beside Still Waters" by Mrs. Harry Bonner of Rockwood at the morning service.

Rev. Gordon Adams, B.A., B.D., of Acton spoke on "The Fullness of the Blessings of Christ." He said an anniversary is an occasion for thanksgiving. We should be thankful for the cross of Jesus Christ and all it stands for. If we are going to live like Him we need the cross and the power God wants us to have and the spiritual blessings of his teachings in the Church. At the evening service Norval United Church choir supplied the music with an anthem, a duet and a solo which added a wonderful touch and Rev. Clifford Brown of Laurel United Church spoke on "Meaning to Life" and assured his listeners all can find meaning to life in God through worship. To live life and live it well the future of the church rests with us as we abide in Him we see meaning to life.

Mrs. Evelyn Barnes and daughter Nora spent the week-end in Brussels with her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Veen Grenke and children Kim, Kevin and Keith.

low'en atmosphere prevailed during the social hour which followed, which included a display of hand knitted articles donated by Mrs. F. Howard. A number of goodie's remained after lunch which were sent to the Kennedy school kindergarten party being held the following day.

The meeting was chaired by president Mrs. Collin Dowd and the casual costumes provided a striking background to the businesslike method in which opening ceremonies and reports of treasurer and secretary were handled.

Help! on the road.

The two young suburban matrons were showing their claws a little as they sarcastically boasted about the devotion of their respective spouses:

"My Bill is so attentive," said the 1st matron, "he's always taking me out to dine. Why only last night we ate up the street."

"Really," retorted her friend, "I didn't know you liked asphalt."
