Planning Starts Already For '60 Georgetown Fair

Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, 5th Line Equestrian, were hosts to a meeting of the Equine Agricultural Society directors who sponsor Georgetown fall fair.

It was a joint meeting of the ladies and men's sections, with Mrs. Mac Alexander and Wilfrid Bird chairing the meetings of the two groups respectively.

The directors were well pleased with the success of the 1959 show, and gate receipts showed only a slight $50 drop from 1958. The attendance to view the hall on the evening previous to the fair was considerably larger, although the crowd at the country music show before the grandstand was disappointing, probably due to the rather cool evening.

The meeting was called primarily to hear reports on the show and to make plans for bettering the fair in any department which might have fallen short while matters were fresh in the minds of the directors. A number of changes are planned for next year's prize list, and it's expected that the ladies will have the advance prize list ready early in the new year.

Plans were made for the annual banquet which will take place early in December, and a committee composed of Mrs. John Bird, Mrs. George Burt, T. J. Brownridge and Cam Sinclair will look after arrangements. A euchre party is also planned for this fall and will be organized by Mrs. Garfield McGilvray, Mrs. Bob Cunningham, Harding Price and Don Winchey.

District No. 5 annual meeting will be held on Friday of this week in Orangeville and all directors were urged to attend. At the morning session, F. A. Lashley of the Ontario Agricultural Societies will address the meeting, and at the afternoon session the guest speaker will be Mrs. Jean Tweed, TV and radio artist.

Mrs. George Ironside will head up the ladies' section of the fair board for 1960, the result of the election of officers. Other appointments were Mrs. Ken Ella, Hornby; 1st vice Mrs. Thomas Giffen, 2nd vice; secretary treasurer, Mrs. Bob Lawson, and social convener, Mrs. Graydon Chester.

LEGION NOTES

by Les Clark

We attended the district convention at Dunnville last weekend and it was a very good one indeed. The zone was well represented with a good number there. Harold Eaton was the guest speaker. He made his official visit as provincial president, and everyone was interested in his remarks, particularly his remarks about the new liquor license rulings as regards the Legion.

We were quite impressed with the Dunnville branch, a nice new building with a tremendous auditorium. That evening was entertained us all at a dance and entertainment. A large number of provincial officers attended, with their wives, including Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eaton and Mr. and Mrs. Reg Cleator.

Representing Ontario to open convention and place the wreath at the cenotaph was the Hon. James Allan, who resides in Dunnville.

The zone meeting last Wednesday evening was not well attended, and no one there from Georgetown. This is disgraceful and is the first time in many years that no one has been fit to attend.

The Remembrance Dinner is Friday evening, and about 250 will be there, the largest crowd we have ever had. This year, with increased facilities, tickets were available up until last Saturday evening so there was no excuse for one not having them. With the added facilities available in the Knox hall the branch was able to cater for many more.

Brampton is having their dinner on Saturday night, and we are once again invited. We appreciate going to their dinner, as we always see a lot of old friends, and members that we don't see too often. This is a really go-ahead branch these days, and is making great progress in all ways.

Harold Eaton, our provincial president is the speaker, and among other things, we have been asked to do the honours in introducing him.

Don't forget Remembrance Day is this Sunday. Legion will
