

Easy Win When Raiders Vanquish Sailors 10-3

PATTERSON NAMED NEW COACH FOR LOCALLS

A relentless Raider barrage sunk Port Credit Sailors, 10-3 Friday night here as the locals posted win number four, their easiest so far.

The breezy triumph marked the exit of Eddie Binsal as a Raider coach. Binsal bowed out of the Raider picture due to pressure of business which didn't allow him the time required to run the club. Taking over the reins for the rest of the campaign will be Scotty Patterson. Patterson, no stranger to Georgetown hockey, is a former Raider rear-guard and since hanging up his skates has accumulated ample coaching experience in similar situations.

The problem the Raiders en-

countered in Friday's waltz was netting that elusive 10th goal. The locals bounced three off the post and played tight raps with the puck on the goal line until Dave Irons rapped in Bill Chard's goalmouth pass at 18:18 of the third period.

Irons counted three on the night to pace the snipers. Junior Beaumont and Blake Inglis notched a pair each and Jerry Inglis, Jamie Cunningham and Bud Vary got the rest. Webster scored twice and Cuddy once for the lakers.

Jerry Inglis returned to his rushing form and scored Georgetown's second goal when he was prompted to carry the puck after a series of inept thrusts by the forwards that fizzled around the Port Credit blue-line.

After that the attackers displayed new spark and by the finale were peppering the Port Credit pipes from every angle. Only erratic shooting kept the total at ten.

KID HOCKEY

By R. A.

Saturday morning December 12th saw some very good hockey by the boys of town.

Bev Moody's Buffalo team went down to its first defeat of the season due to the good passing and hard check of Cincinnati. While in Jr. A the Marlies were finally held back to a 2-1 tie by the Petes. This powerhouse also stands at four wins and one tie for five points which is a very handy lead.

In the NHL both Montreal and New York both strengthened their lead by both winning the respective games.

A reminder to those who have not turned in their registration cards. This must be done immediately. Also a lot of boys are very careless with their equipment. We have quite a few old gloves, stockings, shin pads etc. that have been left behind. Losers see the equipment manager.

Parents: This should all be avoided if you would bring your boy to the arena Saturday morning. Don't just send him.

Commerce Staffers at Royal Yk Dance Party

The Canadian Bank of Commerce annual ball was held last week in the Royal York in Toronto where bank managers and staffers from across the dominion crowded the hotel's two main ball rooms Thursday evening and danced until the wee hours of Friday morning.

The ball was held in conjunction with a week long convention of managers in the Queen city.

The orchestras of Mart Kenney and Moxie Whitney provided the music and lunch was served the hundreds at midnight.

Attending from town were Mr. and Mrs. Don Wingrove, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Garland, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Lee King, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fisher, and Gail Thompson and Gordon Smith.

Auctioneer, Breeder Robert T. Amos Dies

Robert T. Amos, veteran auctioneer, real estate businessman and cattle breeder of Guelph, formerly of Nassagaweya and Puslinch Townships, died suddenly Nov. 27 at the age of 75.

Mr. Amos operated an auctioneering and real estate business in the Guelph area since 1920 when he graduated from the Jones School of auctioneering, Chicago.

Born in North Dumfries Township, Waterloo County, he was the son of George Amos and Ellen Adams. The family moved to Moffat about three years later.

As a youth Mr. Amos became interested in cattle breeding and showing and for a number of years was active in the registered cattle business.

In 1911 he married Margaret Ella MacKenzie in Puslinch Township. At that time he was a member of Nassagaweya Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Amos predeceased him a year ago.

In 1918 he took over the John MacKenzie farm in Puslinch Township from where he operated his auctioneering business also entering the real estate business by 1930.

For a time he operated his business from the office of a firm on Douglas St., Guelph but moved to Guelph in 1945 and opened an office in his home at 76 Edinburg Rd. N. there.

He was a member of the Guelph Chapter, Royal Lodge of Perfection, the Rose Croix, Waverly Lodge and Moore Consistory in Hamilton. He was also an active member of a number of local euechre clubs.

Active in church work, he was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church, an elder of that church and a former member of the board of managers.

Funeral service was held Nov. 30 from the Towner Funeral Home, Guelph, to Knox Presbyterian Church. Rev. D. Crawford Smith conducted the church service at 2:30 p.m. Interment followed at Crown Cemetery, Puslinch.

He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. William H. Jones (Helen) of Fergus, Mrs. Ivan Richardson (Anne) of Campbellville, Mrs. Raymond Blacklock (Ruth) of Milton; a son, Walter of New Hamburg; a brother, Thomas C. of Moffat. A son, John, predeceased him.

Kinettes Welcome Five New Members to Club

Five new ladies were welcomed as members of the Kinettes when initiation night was held on December 10th at dinner meeting at the Jack O'Lantern Restaurant.

Receiving their pins, as members of the group which comprises wives of Kinsmen members, were Mrs. Trev Moore, Mrs. George Baker, Mrs. Jim Somerville, Mrs. Joe Connolly and Mrs. Jim Hanna.

Members later had their Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Reg Higham, where a donation of $25 was made to the Sandra Murden fund. The vassers were thanked who had helped with the financial campaign for the Retarded Children fund.

Dancing Party for S & S Plastic Dept.

The largest attendance yet was recorded when 180 people went partying as guests of the Smith and Stone plastic division Christmas frolic in the Legion Hall Friday night.

Music for dancing was supplied by the Midnighters and spot dances meant valuable prizes for twelve couples. Mrs. Stan Allen, the wife of an ex-foreman made the draw for the door prize, a turkey, won by Roy Norton. Mr. Allen was one of many former employees who accepted the plastics division's invitation to attend.

Merl Reid, Fred Johnson, Maurice Cook, Earl Lince and John Walsh arranged the party.
