Season's Greetings

Our heartfelt wishes to you and yours, with a Joyous Christmas Season.
We're grateful for friendships and associations of this past year, and your continued support.
At the threshold of what we hope will be the outstanding decade, the golden sixties, may you have a truly good New Year.

Xmas Entertainment Anglican Church School

With church school superintendent Doug Meades under the weather with a bout of flu, Ernie Barnes substituted for him in arranging the Christmas Entertainment at St. George's Anglican on Saturday.
The party was split in two, with junior students holding their party in the afternoon and seniors in the evening.
The juniors were entertained with movies and a magician prior to Santa's traditional visit, when presents were given to the beginners and other children received candies and oranges.
Eric Timms assisted with a number of games for the evening group, who also viewed movies and sang carols. Dancing concluded the party. For both groups Roy Cock supplied accordion music.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY

was the Christian Family Apostolate. Owing to the modern trend of placing the education of children entirely into the hands of schools, some of the important aspects of a child's growth are overlooked. Incultation of a Christ-like attitude of charity is hampered and the spirit of co-operation and self-sacrifice is thereby diminished. In order to raise children, "the men of Tomorrow", with the proper outlook, it is necessary to emphasize strongly a "life of true love." This in fact was the dominant theme of the conference.
