Localities Featured on Kitchener TV

Georgetown is still receiving publicity from the industrial exhibit sponsored last fall by the Chamber of Commerce and Industrial Commission. An essay contest, in which prizes were awarded by Dolores Development, was a particular noteworthy part of the exhibit, and winner Martin Wheeler of Glen Williams has already made one television appearance on a Hamilton station. Last Wednesday noon, he was again featured on TV, this time on the Kitchener channel. Along with Sam Pearce, of the judging board and Laura Bau, who wrote the essay, he was judged second best in the competition, he appeared on a 15 minute "live" show called "Telego," which is conducted by Mrs. Elaine Cole.
