

Seek Building Site For Retarded Children School

For the second year the Acton Student Council, instead of giving each other Christmas gifts, collected and donated $52.00 for the Sunshine School for Retarded Children in Milton. The Georgetown Kinsmen in their campaign for funds recently for the Retarded Children's Association in Milton collected $1,156. Due to the financial help given in this way the Association is now looking for a building site to build a new centrally located school which will serve Georgetown, Acton, Milton and the surrounding areas.

Mr. Andrew Miller, 28 Shelley Street has now joined the Milton executive as Education Chairman, and Mrs. Max English, Weber Drive, Georgetown, has volunteered to give the children at the Sunshine School Speech Therapy lessons each week. Mr. English owns and the Association is now looking for a building site to build a

William Hardy, 83 Ardent Traveller

A farmer on the 6th line for twenty years, William Hardy died Saturday in Peel Memorial Hospital in his 83rd year. He had been ill for some time. Born on the 5th line farm acquired by his grandfather on a land grant from the crown, he was the son of John Hardy and Jennie (Laurenson). He received his schooling at Ashgrove public school.

It was after his retirement that he met and married Mrs. on Elder at Streetville who predeceased him some 16 years ago. He resided with Mr. and Mrs. Mac Alexander, R. R. 1, Norval, at the time of his death.

An ardent traveller until his illness in recent years he made a habit of spending some time in Florida each winter and twice visited Vancouver during the cold months. He gained many friends thru his journeys and always showed a special fondness for children.

Only two members of his family survive him, sisters Louisa (Mrs. Ward Huddell) and Mary (Mrs. Tom Crozier) of Orangeville. He was predeceased by brothers John of Milton and George of Acton, and sisters Mrs. George Irving of Milton and Margaret at home, as well as a stepbrother, Charles, and stepdaughters, Jennie (Mrs. Robert McLaughlin) of Norval.

Funeral service was held on Monday at the MacKub & Son Ltd. Funeral Chapel, Milton, and interment was in Evergreen Cemetery.

Rev. John Hill conducted the service and pallbearers were nephews Charles McLaughlin, Clifford Hardy, John Irving, Frank Huddell, William Crozier, Orangeville and Ben Wingrove, Toronto, John Humphreys, Brampton, was an honorary pallbearer.

Kindergarten Program Is Explained to H & S Parents

The Harrison Home and School association held their meeting in Miss Searlett's room on Monday, January 11th. The meeting opened with the Home and School Prayer. Mrs. Macaulay gave a brief outline of the Kindergarten program to be held in February.

Mr. Harold Henry introduced the guest speaker who was Mr. McNeil, School Inspector for Halton County. His topic was a "Study of the Kindergarten Program". His talk was divided into various phases such as Concept of Child and Child's Development, Purpose of Kindergarten, Readiness for School, Training for Grade 1 and Reading Readiness. He gave the parents an exercise in "Reading Readiness" which a child would receive in Kindergarten. This exercise was most interesting and informative for the parents, got a clear picture as to how the children are prepared for reading which comes in grade one. A question and answer period followed.

Mr. Gordon Hallitt thanked Mr. McNeil for his very informative talk. Mr. Henry told of the proposed variety concert to be held in March with each grade taking part. This concert will be held in Wigglesworth School auditorium. Mr. Henry also reviewed the regulations for the school uniforms and where the crests were to be worn. A new cardigan for grade 6B was shown. It is white with red arm-bands and red with white arm-bands. There are also school letters which cannot be purchased but will be given to boys and girls with the highest academic standing or who have top athletic achievements, etc.

At the close of the meeting a short singing was enjoyed with Mr. Ferguson playing the piano. He also entertained with music while lunch was being served.

Kinsmen Christmas Tree Tally is 700

Some 700 Georgetown homes sheltered Christmas trees sold in a fund raising project by Georgetown's youngest service club this season.

In a conversation with a Herald reporter Tuesday morning, Kinsman Jack Cuthbert said the money received from the successful venture has been deposited in the club's service account and will be put to good use through a future club project.

Kin Jack also expressed the club's appreciation to the public for patronizing the Kinsmen tree lot at the corner of Guelph and Ribway and making the endeavor the success it was. This was the second time that the Kin have used the tree selling scheme to boost their service account.

Local Hotel Owner John McGibbon Dies

John O. McGibbon died on January 9th in Guelph General Hospital after a long illness. He was born in Acton in 1869, moving to Georgetown at the age of eight months. His parents were Anne Darling and Samuel H. McGibbon and when they came from Acton they came to the property which is still known as the McGibbon Hotel and which is probably the oldest established business on Main Street still retained by a family. Mr. McGibbon attended public and high schools here and after that worked in the family hotel.

In his early years he was very interested in the Baseball Club and Hockey Club, he was also a member of the 164th Battalion during the first world war. On November 26th, 1936 he and Edna Jepson were married in Guelph.

He leaves his wife and sisters Hazel (Mrs. Van Dusen) of Tara, Gladys of Georgetown, Anne (Mrs. Bitter) of Goodland, Pa., and Jean (Mrs. H. MacFarland) of Toronto. A brother Robert predeceased him several years ago.

Rev. Alex Calder conducted the funeral service at Knox Church on Tuesday, January 12th at three o'clock. Pallbearers were Herb MacFarland, Kenneth McMillan, Harry Short, Peter McGibbon, Robert McCandless and Robert Jepson. Flower bearers were men who had worked with him at the hotel. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Tankful of Gas For Most Courteous Drivers

The Radicals Custom Car Club, a group of young local motorists enthusiastically have initiated a series of monthly prizes which will be awarded to the most courteous driver of the month.

With cooperation of the police department, which has promised to choose the motorist to be honoured, the club will give 10 gallons of gas to the lucky person.

Formerly known as the Road Aces, the club has been in existence for some time and is affiliated with the Triangle Timing association, a branch of the National Hot Rod Association in the States. Present club officers are Howard Hamilton, president; Lynne Hyde, vice president; Paul Ward, treasurer and John Bowman, secretary.

Moving From Town Rotarians Honoured

Two members of the Rotary Club of Georgetown were honoured at a party held by the club last Saturday night. Jim Ritchie and Bill Rycroft, and their wives were given a farewell party by Rotary members and the "Rotaryannes" at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hamilton, a past president of the club.

The evening was spent with cards and dancing, and ended with a delicious buffet. President Bill Bishop presented two suitable inscribed travelling alarm clocks to the two men, and stoles were presented to Mrs. Rycroft and Mrs. Ritchie by Mrs. Bishop, as a little remembrance from the Rotary. Their excellent work in aiding club projects, was cited.

We went to the records Friday night, and George did the spinning honours as always. This Friday it will once again be records with George at the controls. CIUM may have Al Boliska, but we've got "way out" George, so make sure you drop in and stay awhile.

My number oneville bound records this week are two real eyeopeners: First up is the Fireballs and their big recording "Bulldog." Next up is big Chuck Berry and "Too Pooped to Pop."

These four following songs are about the biggest up-and-coming records in the country "Where or When", Dion and

Bradford Downs Raiders In Tuesday Night's Game

Some three hundred fans who braved a freezing rain storm, paid their 60 cents, and then stood around until well after 11 p.m. to witness the Intermediate A game of the week Tuesday night were wondering why by the time the third period rolled around.

The Bradford Raiders, clash which the Fords somehow won 11-4 looked more like a Haverhill-Branksom Hall get-together than what it was supposed to resemble.

The Ford's goalie, R. Kerns, took a two inch cut when he stopped a shot from the blue line with his head after 5 minutes and 25 seconds of the first. That put him out of uniform for the rest of the night, although he returned in third to watch the rest of the action with one eye. Maybe it looked better that way.

Goal King who stepped into the gap after a lengthy delay had little to do for the two and two thirds periods remaining, as the Fords threw a defensive wall around the shutout netminder. About all the movement to King was that he had to stand up for the rest of the game.

The Bradford protection in the last two periods made Colgate's goal look like a piece of saran wrap.

Lockhurst, Vares, Beaumont and just about everybody else with the exception of Demers and maybe Doug Richardson turned in their worst effort so far. Luckily Bradford was also playing like they were looking after the celer instead of the top rung, or it could have been a lot worse.

Bradford led 3-1 after one period, 6-4 at the end of two, and then ran away with it by scoring five unanswered tallies in the final frame, but it wasn't a total loss. Raider players picked up assists on at least four of them.

Nicholas, triggered three goals for the Fords. Dunn and Hodgson two apiece and Pitton, Cosborne, Quinlan, and Gibson netted singles. Demers paced the Raiders with a pair, and Blake Inglis and Bud Vares counted the others.

The Raiders had their momentum take into their zone for as long as two and three minutes at a time in short bursts of power and bounced four bullets off the Bradford pipes.

It was an outraged crowd that watched Referee Al Promancignore Port Credit's elbows and butt end for three periods in Fords's 5-1 Raider win here.

Promancignore seems to consider officiating like a 7000 always lets the game get away out of hand and then tries to come out in sharply. Every once in a while the string breaks and hockey gets a black eye when the teams go at each other with sticks and fists.

Voyce and McNeil, and Magdy and Ball tangled for five minute majors as Georgetown collected 12 penalties to Port Credit's 6.

Blake Inglis talked three times, James Cunningham twice and Jr. Beaumont once for the Raiders. Coxie spoiled Lockhurst's shutout at 10:10 of the second period.

Georgetown is at Milton Friday night and Milton returns the visit Tuesday.

particularly that of the Senior Citizens dinner, which has been a pet project of Mr. and Mrs. Ritchie, and the Minster Show, in which Mr. and Mrs. Rycroft took prominent parts.

In reply both members said how very sorry they were to leave the club and that they would be visiting often in the future.

Illustrated Talk By Dr. E. L. Jaquith At Farmers Club Meeting

The Terra Cotta C.F.O. met on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pucker, with a large attendance. The roll call was answered by "A Cure for Wrinkles". The motto was very ably given by Mrs. Jack McDonald, on "New Year's Thoughts".

All enjoyed two musical numbers given by the Union Moornaires, and a piano solo by Hugh Hunter. An illustrated lecture was given by Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Jaquith on their three month tour of England and Scotland. Also a film of a wild life sanctuary in England was shown.

Mrs. Wilfrid Lebie gave a vote of thanks to all those taking part in the program. Lunch was served, and a social hour was enjoyed by all present.

Mrs. Hutchinson Tops 50-50 Lady Bowlers

Mrs. Tom Hutchinson of the 50-50 Bowling League continues as the hottest lady bowler on the Lucky Strike lanes this season with handicap scores of 669 triple and 345 single carded last week when her league commenced its 1960 series.

Mrs. Hutchinson rolled a flat 300 and an 800 triple to again dominate the top spot in both departments.

In their first action since the holidays, Good Cop's Bowlers' League took five points from George Erickson's Jokers and Sissy Sigurdson's Blowers did the same to Don Carter's Alley-Cats.

At the end of 1959 the Jokers

ANYBODY CAN WRITE A WANT AD

and almost everyone does at one time or another, because Want Ads do so many jobs so well.

The Want Ad is one form of advertising which does not require the "professional touch" to be successful. That is why so many Canadian families use Want Ads each year to perform such important jobs as selling items which are valuable but no longer needed, finding living quarters, renting vacant properties, finding jobs or finding someone to fill a job, locating lost articles and pets, locating needed items which are hard to find.

It's easy to place a Herald Want Ad, too. Simply dial TRIangle 7-2201 and a courteous ad taker will help you. You will receive prompt attention, and any assistance you may need in placing your ad.
