the Raider uniform probably because the paying customers expected wonders from the former Switzerland coach, has risen steadily to his expected calibre and for the , last two games has been the only bright light in the Raider attack.

Blake Inglis set the locals off to a 1-0 start at 3.33 of the first period on a pass from Junior Beaumont but the high scoring torward baid for his marksman ship just minuses later with a broken nose that took him out of the game. The luglis schnox was fractured in a collision with Sailor Stan Milne.

The Raiders guarded the margia until early in the secand period when Evans pulled the PCs even on a pass from Case. McCarthy put the home club shead at 1414 only to have Demerse equalize it from Luybon seconds later.

The Sailors went shead to tay at the 1845 mark when drivest relayed Ayre's pass to H. Ball who rapped in the winner. The clincher went in off Ayre's stick at 235 of the third, McCarthy and Ball picking up the assists.
