SCOUTS, GUIDES PARADE TO ST. JOHN'S CHURCH SERVICE

Over 300 scouts, guides, cubs, brownies, and rovers, and their leaders attended the annual Scouts Own church parade on Sunday afternoon in St. John's United Church.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane led the service with the call to worship. Prayer was led by scout troop leader John Pennock. Guides of the 1st Company sang under direction of Kenneth R. Harrison who also was organist for the service, and Ellen Biehn read the scripture. Members of the rover crew acted as ushers.

Having his address on "The Backbone of Scouting" Vic Gunn used a drawing of the human skeleton to illustrate a realisation of promises for brownies. This was led by Brown Owl Mrs. Robert Wyatt, for cubs by Akela Jack Livingstone, for guides by district commissioner Mrs. R. J. Cannell and for scouts by district scoutmaster Jack Meadows. Rev. Morgan McFarlane pronounced the benediction.

JUVENILES OUST OAKS IN TRI-COUNTY PLAYOFFS

Scoring 83 and 32 consecutive victories Georgetown juveniles ousted Oakville from the tri-county playoffs in a best of three series last week.

Walt Dixon, notched three goals to spearhead the attack Thursday. Bob Henderson contributed a pair and singles were counted by Paul Popiel, Kent Riddell and McDonald Godfrey with 2 and Callon scored for Oakville.

The locals scored three goals in the final period on Oakville Friday in a come from behind victory that clinched the series. Ian Ferguson got a 77-79 mistake from Riddell in scoring the winner after Dixon from Riddell and Lindsay from Popiel had tied the score. Hunter and Callon gave the Oaks their 2-0 margin.

50-50 BOWLERS

In spite of Mrs. Dulcie Falmert's 291 single in the final frame in 50-50 bowling last week, Siggy Sigerson's "Blowers" were unable to stave off a 7-0 whitewash at the hands of George Erickson's "Jokers".

Mrs. Fred Sinclair, is St. John's W.A. President

Mrs. Fred Sinclair was elected president of the Woman's Association of St. John's United Church at their January meeting which followed a pot luck supper supervised by Group 4, in charge of Mrs. Walter T. Evans.

Mrs. Wesley Fiebig presided for election of officers and serving with Mrs. Sinclair on the 1948 executive will be: Mrs. Douglas Estimer, 1st vice president, Mrs. W. Marshall, 2nd vice president, Gladys Ward, recording secretary, Mrs. C. Teague, corresponding secretary, Mrs. Cecil Davidson, treasurer.

Mrs. C. J. Buck gave a fine devotional, reading scripture from the 22nd chapter of Job, and closing with the thought that we must practice christianity seven days a week and in all we do and say.

Mrs. Don Hancock was a guest and sang two lovely solos "In The Garden" and "How Great Thou Art". Several thank you notes were read from recipients of Christmas boxes.

Mrs. F. Ross presented Mrs. Veda Armstrong with a gift in appreciation of her services as secretary. Mrs. Armstrong now attends St. Andrew's United Church. Mrs. Frank Whitmer, reporting for the church mission and maintenance stated that Miss Gladys Aylward will speak at the Sunday morning service on March 27th.

Reports from group leaders were very encouraging and told of a busy, satisfying year, both financially and in fellowship. The treasurer, Mrs. Davidson reported a substantial bank balance and said theazaar had shown a good profit.

Mrs. Sinclair took the chair and brought to members' attention two verses of scripture: "Seek ye first the Kingdom of God" and "Blessed are they who do not hear, only" which could well be taken for the motto this coming year. After dealing with a few business items, the meeting closed with repeating the Mizpah benediction.

Congratulations and best wishes go to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson who celebrated their twenty second wedding anniversary on February 5th.

Sympathy is extended to Mrs. Wilfred Bird and her family in the death of her father, Mrs. W. W. Fisher.

The Bright Star Mission Band met on Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. A. Humes with Mrs. A. Humes, Mrs. Kate Cooper, of Flint, Mich., and a niece, Mrs. Vera Coleman of Galt.

Two very fine films were shown, entitled, "Riches of the Earth" and "The Land of Bubbling Water", and each was also played as part of the evening's program.

Mrs. Snow read a letter of thanks from the Milton Richard Children's School. She had collected $24 from this district on behalf of the Institute to go towards the "new building" fund. This had been gratefully received and the Institute would like to thank everyone who contributed to this very worthwhile project.

Articles made from sugar bags by the members some time ago were auctioned off and the money put in the welfare fund.

The Young People's group of the Ballinacraig church, met in the church on Sunday evening with a good turnout. An assembly project for the group was discussed and the need for young people to take their place in the church was pointed out. The church as told their workers was presented by Mr. McRob.

C.G.I.F. also met last Monday and they completed their course on first aid and home nursing. Plans were made for a sleigh ride and Valentine party at their next meeting.

Work and visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Humes were Mrs. A. Humes, Mrs. Kate Cooper, of Flint, Mich., and a niece, Mrs. Vera Coleman of Galt.
