

DREAM BECOMES REALITY

"SOMETHING I'VE DREAMED OF" might well be the thought of Dr. C. V. Williams, right, as he looks at a sketch of Georgetown's new hospital. With Dr. Archie Bull, county Medical Officer of Health and Rev. Kenneth Richardson of St. George's Church, Dr. Williams was one of the speakers at the hospital's opening Thursday.

VARIAN BOWLERS

An 801 triple by Tom Graham tied his previous high score and highlighted Varian Associates Bowling League this week.

Tom's 295 single also topped that department. Jack Knipe taking second with a 278. Tom had less competition for triple honors, beating George Bent's 673.

Marg O'Halloran paced the ladies with a 246 single and 598 triple. Mrs. Hill Hillier had the second best single, a 218 and Mrs. Dan Meads, 557 gave her number 2 triple.

BALLINAFAD

Smorgasbord Supper Benefit For Organ

Max E. McHenry was hostess for the February meeting of the Evening Auxiliaries Thursday, Mrs. N. Sinclair opened the meeting with prayer and hymn 257. Mrs. Leo Jameson led the group in the devotional, taking for a scripture reading Luke 11:1-13. A very interesting film, "Face to Future" on every day life of the African working man was shown by Mrs. J. McHenry. Two readings on citizenship were given by Mrs. M. Norton. Plans were made for a Smorgasbord supper in March to aid funds for a new organ. Following the benediction, lunch was served by the business and Mrs. N. Sinclair and Mrs. M. Norton.

The W.A. met for their regular meeting on Tuesday of last week at the home of Mrs. A. Haines. Valentines were exchanged for roll call and each member read the verse from the our they received. Mrs. Black had the worship service on the theme, "I am the light of the world" with commentary on the famous painting by Holman Hunt with that name. Plans were made for a bake sale in Georgetown on April 1st and a delicious lunch was served by Mrs. Perryman and Mrs. T. Given, assisted by the hostess.

Congratulations to Mrs. Beeth McMenemy, who won the beautiful valentine cake at the affair on Saturday at the Oddfellows Hall.

Mr. Tom Mack visited for the weekend in Guelph with his son Fred.

David Norton of Guelph was a weekend visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Norton.

More News From The Scout Corner

1st Georgetown troop

On Thursday night, Feb. 11, Poles McNamee and John Knight were invited into the troop. David Shrubsole was invested as patrol leader of the Night Hawk patrol.

After a short game — which took a long time!!! — a parents meeting was held. Skip discussed camping, canoeing, hiking, and the gang show. Question and answer period and according to remarks, everybody had a fair old time.

ASHGROVE STUDY AFRICAN LIFE AS MISSION PROJECT

The WMS met on Tuesday afternoon, February 9th at the home of Mrs. George Nurse with the president opening with a hymn and prayer. Secretary Mrs. Cecil Wilson read the minutes of the January meeting and called the roll which was answered by a liturgical verse or thought on Grace's Devotional was taken by Mrs. Ward Brownridge which had its theme from the Lord's Prayer and she was assisted by six worshippers: Mrs. J. Wickson, Mrs. H. Bird, Mrs. F. Ruddlell, Mrs. T. Giffen, Mrs. F. Wilson, Mrs. A. Ruddlell with Mrs. Harvey Nurse reading the Scripture passage. Another chapter from the Study Book on the life and ways of the African people was in charge of Mrs. Frank Ruddlell. The prayer for chosen missions was given by Mrs. Thos. Giffen. Mrs. J. M. Wickson thanked the hostess and all who had taken any part and the meeting closed with a social hour.

The Bright Star Mission Band held a croquet social in the church basement on Saturday evening. Winners were Mrs. Harvey Nurse and Ward Brownridge and the children's winners were Janice Cole and Charles Hill. Lunch concluded a happy evening.

We are glad to report that Wilfrid and Mrs. Stuart Nurse are both home again after being hospitalized for a few days. The Young People held their meeting at the home of Marilyn Wilson on Sunday evening. They had a worship service and Mrs. Wilfrid Bird spoke to them on the Sudan.

SUPERIOR STORE

FORMERLY OPERATED AS STEINBERG'S - GRAND UNION
Now owned and operated by HENRY and HEDA BARKOSKIE

The store, previously owned by Steinberg's has been purchase by Mr. Henry Barkoskie. Mr. Barkoskie has had 35 years experience in the wholesale and retail grocery business, having managed a Dominion store for 10 years, and was employed for 10 years with Carroll's - Grand Union as store manager and chief auditor.

The new owner made a purchase offer to Steinberg's while making an audit of the premises and stock.

OUR PLEDGE TO OUR CUSTOMERS

Having had so many years experience in the grocery business, we realize that there is only one important person, and that is the customer. He or she can make or break any store.

So our pledge is to sell only high quality merchandise, at the lowest possible prices. All goods are unconditionally guaranteed and if not entirely satisfactory, your money will be refunded cheerfully.

A large order has just arrived, and we hope to have our shelves completely stocked for the week-end.

We hope you will come to see us, and give us your business as you did the previous owners. We hope you will tell us which merchandise you would like us to carry, if we do not have it at present.

We will buy our groceries from York Trading Co., and will have a weekly price list to keep our prices in line with other stores, and with the general market.

As owners of the store (not just managers) we will make sure that our customers receive more attention, and that all needs are attended as quickly as possible. After all, we are here primarily to serve you.
