Saves Car in Garage Fire on Ontario St. A garage on the property of Mark Stufko, 17 Ontario St., was damaged by fire Monday when a stove set up inside to melt an accumulation of ice overheated. The inside of the garage was badly scorched in the ensuing blaze and some contents destroyed. Two radios stored in the garage were lost. However Mr. Stufko backed his car out in time to save it from damage. Firemen had the flames under control within a couple of minutes after their arrival, and a house near the garage was kept out of danger. The alarm turned in at about 20 after 12 noon.

Overheated pipes were also blamed for a chimney-fire last Thursday afternoon at the Durham Street home of Mr. and Mrs. W. Emmerson, however no damage resulted here. The call was turned in at about 4.30 p.m.

More Police Protection Sought For Hockey Tilts

More police protection at hockey games was used by many groups, he said, and he thinks they should be financed privately. The request still rests in the hands of Cr. Hunter's recreation committee which has not yet made a recommendation to council on the request.

Cr. Harrison, who is also a hockey club official, said that the club had dropped its policy of paying off-duty men for such protection this year. "Last year we paid $8 per man for policing," said Cr. Hunter.

Police chairman Kelly said the police chief had told him that his men are instructed to visit the arena during their duty rounds, but not to stay there to the detriment of other parts of town.

The area is not known to be safe, Cr. Hunter said. He said that the club had dropped its policy of paying off-duty men for such protection this year. "Last year we paid $8 per man for policing," said Cr. Hunter.

Business Change.... I WISH TO INFORM ALL MY CLIENTS, PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE THAT I HAVE SOLD MY PRACTICE TO DR. SHELDON ZAVITZ and DR. VICKI ZAVITZ both of whom are graduates from the Ontario Veterinary College.

Dr. Sheldon Zavitz plans to attend to the farm practice, while Dr. Vicki Zavitz will attend the office and small animals or pets. Both are eminently qualified and have considerable experience behind them. As a man and wife team, they will be able to give even better service than has been given in the past.

I sincerely regret having had to take this step, for I have loved my work and the people whom I served. Health reasons, as some of you know, force this step. Thank you, all of you, for a wonderfully rewarding ten years.
