Bagpipes, Dancers Provide Scottish Evening At Manor

The skill of the bagpipes and the soft swish of shoe leather on the polished floor were heard in the dining room of the Manor on Leap Year night, Monday, Feb. 29th, on which occasion a very enjoyable and thrilling evening of entertainment was provided for the residents by about twenty five members of the Acton Scottish dance club. The honorary president of the club, Mr. Fred Wright, was present but it was regretted that the president, Dr. R. Buckner, was unable to attend. Mr. Bill Wilton was the competent and witty master of ceremonies, and Mr. Bob Foyers was in charge of the pipers. The group was composed of adult dancers, teenage dancers and children.

The program opened with the piping in of the dancers to the music of the bagpipes. The ladies were dressed in white dresses and tartans, the gentlemen in white shirts and kilts. The children who performed special dances were dressed in full Highland costumes. The music for the dancers as a group was provided by a record player and for the special dancers by the bagpipes.

The first dance of the evening a dance which set the pace for the whole exhilarating program was the Petronella, performed by eight adults. This was followed by a stirring bagpipe selection, a medley of three Scottish tunes, played by one of the young boys, Michael Joe. In the next dance, Double Swords, Andriana Cumella, Milton and Penny Izatt of Clarkson won the hearts of the audience as they also did later when dancing the Shean, Trubhais and the Highland Fling. Both Penny and Andriana showed great talent in solo dances also. Penny's dance being the Flora MacDonalld dance and Andriana's the Irish Jig. In the group dances, which alternated with these solo and duo numbers, the Waltz Country Dance and the Eight-some Reel were danced by both the adults and teenagers as a group, and Strips the Willow by the teenagers only. The Junior Pipe Band, composed of four pipers and a drummer played a medley of three tunes in very creditable fashion. In an interval between dances, Mrs. Buckner, acting on behalf of her husband, Dr. Buckner, the president of the Club, presented candy and cigarettes to the residents. The great enjoyment of the audience was expressed in a speech of thanks by Mrs. Margaret Forbes.

A delicious lunch of scones, shortbread, fruit cake and cookies donated by the visitors and cold drinks was served, after which two more group dances, The Dashing White Sergeant, and The Canadian Horn Dance brought the entertainment to a close. Although this club is known as the Acton Scottish Dance Club some of its members come from Clarkson and Milton. Needless to say, an other evening to be spent in this enjoyable and informal way would be greatly anticipated.

Twenty five ladies attended the regular meeting of the Hub by Class on Wednesday afternoon, March 2. Mrs. S. Lockie and Mrs. S. Allen presided. The donation of articles received at the Valentine party, given by the Scotch Block WI, when the roll call was answered with gifts for the hobby class, was displayed for the members and much appreciation expressed. Greatly appreciated also were several gifts of nylon and hose and wool which will prove very useful in Hobby Class projects. A number of very attractive finished articles were brought to this meeting, among them a crib throw, an embroidered luncheon cloth, several aprons, knitted cushions, baby's booties and children's socks. At the conclusion of the business period some time was spent in cutting tags from old Christmas cards.

The storm and inclement weather of Thursday, March 3rd failed to daunt some thirty five handmen of the Lorne Scots Band and their gifted leader, Lieut. E. G. Corlett, when they came to present a concert for the residents. As is the usual case in concerts by this fine band, great versatility was shown in the playing of a varied program. Stirring marches, such as The Standard of St. George, the Totem Pole March, and A Grangea were presented in a program that also included other types of music such as Reverie for Band, Overture Dramatique and the novelty number, The Waltzing Cat. Cold drinks and cookies were served at the conclusion of the program. Much appreciation was expressed to the bandmen and their bandmaster for keeping the appointment for this enjoyable program in spite of the stormy weather.

A service in honour of the World Day of Prayer was held in the dining room of the Manor on Friday afternoon, March 4th. The service was conducted by Mrs. S. Lockie and Mrs. S. Allen. The printed leaflet being used throughout Canada on this occasion was used for this service at the Manor also, the theme for this year being "Labourers together with God". Both men and women residents attended. Mrs. Luckie, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Margaret Forbes and Miss Clara Sutton read portions of the leaflet, while Mr. Alf Barker and Mr. Norman Barlow read portions of Scripture. Mrs. Lockie gave an inspiring summary of one of the little booklets written by Rev. Norman Vincent Peale of New York City. Mrs. Betty Clement of Milton added greatly to the inspiration of the meeting by singing a very fine solo, The Stranger of Galilee. A number of familiar hymns, led by Mrs. Lockie were sung, with some of the persons present suggesting their favourites.

and wiping the wood off their faces. And good for him. But the same fellow will tell you the reason he hates the English is because of the rough treatment his folk got from Cromwell. To hear him tell it you'd think it had been last Halloween, not 300 years ago.

Another thing you'll notice about the Irish is their immense self satisfaction. Who also would excuse the possession of a foul temper by declaring proudly "I guess it's the Irish in me!"

One more national trait is their glee in throwing cold water. They don't really mean it but show an Irishman a silver lining and he'll show you a black cloud.

However, it takes all kinds to make a world, and some of my best friends are Irish, but how would you like your sister to marry one? Well, my sister's brother married one and I tell you, boys, you never know whether it's a kiss or a kick you'll be getting.

New Highway Maps Will Show County Boundaries

Several changes designed to help the highway traveller have been introduced in the 1960 Ontario Official Road Map which has just come off the presses.

The map is revised every year, of course, to show new highways under construction, any changes in highway numbers and some additional place names.

However, the newest feature of the 1960 map is that all county and district names and boundaries are shown. The names have been placed in a curve to make them stand out as much as possible and the boundaries are emphasized by white shading.

The Department of Highways places signs where county boundaries intersect highways. With the county boundaries shown on the map it will be possible for drivers to use them as reference points when travelling.

The new map is available at any of the department's 18 district offices throughout the province, Department of Travel and Publicity tourist reception centres, or in writing from the Department of Travel and Publicity, Toronto.
