Beardmore Employee Veterinarian's Father

Father of a former town resident, Cecil W. Mapleston, 68 of 121 Church St., Acton, died Friday in Sunnybrook Hospital, Toronto.

A blacksmith by trade, he had been employed in the machine shop at the Beardmore Company. He was born in Kent, a son of the late Harry Mapleston and Emma Mills. During the first war he served in the Imperial Army with the Royal Veterinary Corps. He came to Canada in 1920 and had lived in Acton for 27 years.

He leaves his wife, Frances Feanry, two daughters, Miss Hector Lambert and Mrs. J. D. Gralande, both of Acton and one son, Dr. Douglas Mapleston, Georgetown, also 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren, and two sisters and two brothers in England.

Funeral services will be held on Sunday at the family home, 121 Church St., Acton, with interment in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.

Credit Glen Guide For Rescue of Child

A Glen Williams Girl Guide has been credited with saving another Glen youth from drowning.

Eleven-year-old Jay Holmes was on her way home from school last Tuesday, March 22 when she noticed Michael Golden, age 6, wading into the river after his mitt near the bridge in the centre of the village. The child had apparently dropped the mitt into the water while playing near there with playmate Billy Robson.

As the current carried the mitt into deeper water, young Michael started to put it back, but was stopped by Jay's shouts. He was standing in waist-deep water, his arms outstretched, trying to stay afloat. Jay reached him.

Michael is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Golden.

CGIT, Explorers Are Affiliated with WMS

Last Wednesday evening the CGIT and Explorers Groups of St. John's United Church became affiliated with the Women's Missionary Society.

Guests taking part in the service were Mrs. McDonald, of Cookville, presbyterial secretary of the WMS, Mrs. Walter Brownridge, president of the Afternoon Auxiliary, whose group sponsors the CGIT, Mrs. O. M. Brewster, president of the Evening Auxiliary who sponsors the Explorers, Mrs. McCurdy, Explorer presbyterial secretary from Streetsville, was unable to attend.

The CGIT and Explorers presented separate token gifts to the WMS president, to be used for medical work, vocational schools for girls in Angola, where they learn cooking, sewing, knitting, gardening, bible lessons and graduates return to their villages to be Christian leaders. Means School is a residential school for senior public school and girls attend CGIT groups there too.

The girls have completed World Friendship, a project on Angola. After viewing films and reading books, they learned many things about the African people, especially the need for more missionaries and supporting those already under many difficulties.

The CGIT was presented with a certificate of affiliation and world friendship insignia which is worn on the lower right arm. The circle signifies the world; the cross the gospel of Jesus Christ; the diamond the four-fold purpose of CGIT. The rays of light and waves symbolize the light of the gospel stretching from sea to sea.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane read the benediction and a lunch was served by the leaders of CGIT and Explorers, with the older girls serving.

Recover Stolen Goods Juveniles are Charged

A small gang of juveniles ranging in age from 11 to 14 were apprehended by police last week in connection with a rash of thefts perpetrated against stores in Georgetown and Brampton.

According to police, the gang, 8 in all, was also responsible for extensive milk bottle looting which took part on the night of Friday, March 18. They said the stolen property totalled an estimated $400.

The roundup started Monday, March 21st when Constables Ron Rankine and Harley Lowe picked up two juveniles following a break and entry at Ernie's Hardware and TV store the previous weekend.

By Thursday the remaining six were apprehended.

Stolen property recovered included air rifles, hunting knives, transistor radios, jewellery, pens and pencils, records, fishing tackle, watches, etc. and in most cases the victimized storekeepers had no knowledge of the missing articles.

The young suspects have been charged and will be brought to court.
