New York Honeymoon For St. John's Newlyweds

Tall standards of white and yellow anemones decorated St. John's United Church on Saturday, March 19th when Mary Elizabeth Willson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willson, 18 Ewing St., became the bride of Ronald Erwin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Erwin, of Toronto.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane officiated at the double ring ceremony. Kenneth Harrison, ARCT. RMY, was the organist and Miss Sandra Sproule was the soloist. The Wedding Prayer was her solo prior to the ceremony and O Praise Me was sung during the signing of the register.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, Charles Willson, wore a floor length gown of nylon tulle over a slipper skirt with a V-shaped neckline of pleated tulle bordered in silver, seed pearls and sequins. The fitted lace bodice with lace overtraps attached to the gathered tulle hip yoke extended over a beautiful floored skirt of nylon tulle. Her three-quarter length necklace embroidered with lace fell from a pearl and sequin headpiece. The wedding bouquet was of tawny gold roses interspersed with Swiss net and hydrangea blooms.

Miss Doreen Armstrong was maid of honour and Mrs. R. Wolfe was bridesmaid. They were gowned alike in wall length gowns of soft orchid nylon with styles and mitts to match with small orchid flowered hats and matching shoes. Misses Delby Willson and Bonnie Erwin, sisters of the bride and groom were the flower girls dressed alike in short pale green nylon frocks which were appliqued with flowers of the same material. They wore matching headbands. The four attendants all carried colonial bouquets of Queen Elizabeth roses and orchid sweet peas.

Harry Erwin was groomsman for his brother and Jack Reed and Joe McDevitt were the ushers.

The wedding reception was held in the Old Fellows Hall where the bride's mother received for her in a silk sheath gown of water coloured tones of green and mauve with mauve accessories. Her corsage was of Queen Elizabeth roses. She was
