Congregation Hear Recording at Service

On Sunday morning on the Ballinacraig charge, the congregation at each church had the privilege of hearing tape recording of the Rev. Clarence Jordan, a Baptist minister in the southern States who had been brutally punished recently for his stand in the racial discrimination problems in his part of the country. His message was clearly spoken and very thought-provoking for all Christians. Miss Viola Vincent of the Bulldog music store played on the Lowrey organ for the service and Mr. and Mrs. E. McEnery, sang a beautiful duet in keeping with the Easter theme. Winters at the Institute such as on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Snow were Mrs. William Kirkwood, Mrs. Ray Spindhurst, Messrs. T. Gibson and Archie Law. There was a splendid turnout with ten or eleven playing. Miss Julie Thompson of Dundee Scotland, is a guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jamieson and family. Mrs. J. Black was in Fergus on Wednesday of last week for the occasion of her parents' 50th wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Smellie were married in Fergus and have lived there all their life. A family dinner party was also given in their honour on Friday night when the immediate family and other relatives gathered for a social evening together.

Toronto Man Father Queen Street Lady

Father of Mrs. Wilfred (Pete) Hunter, 21 Queen St. William Coleman died suddenly in the Toronto East General Hospital, on March 29th. A native of Essex, England, he had lived in Toronto since 1910. He served with the 3rd Battalion, C.E.F. in World War One. He leaves his wife, Marion Watkinson, three daughters, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. John McKay, Applewood Acres and Miss Dorothy Coleman, Toronto, and a granddaughter, Joan McKay. Funeral service was held on Saturday at the Trull Funeral Home and interment was in Park Lawn Cemetery.
