

LEGION NOTES

The District meeting was in Dundas last weekend and we attended sessions Saturday p.m. and also on Sunday, along with local branch reps, Dave Capper and Alex Taylor. The affair was not of the usual size, but was interesting and constructive.

What About Technical and Trade Schools?

"The growing need for more technical and trade schools is being recognized by school authorities throughout the country."

This is the opening sentence in Sun Life of Canada's booklet, "What About Technical and Trade Schools?" which goes on to describe the increased financial returns and social acceptance of today's skilled labour class and which was designed to help the youngster who is trying to plan for his future.

"What About Technical and Trade Schools?" and other booklets in the Values in Education series, offered as a public service by Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada, are available without charge or obligation. Just mail the coupon below.

ASHOROVE

Mrs. Francis Thompson Installed W.I. Head

Mrs. Vern Pickett and daughters Vera and Doris were hostesses for the Institute meeting on Tuesday afternoon, April 19 when the president Mrs. Francis Thompson opened with the ode and prayer. Secretary Mrs. Frank Wilson called the roll which was answered with the paying of next year's fees. A letter of thanks was read from the Muscular Dystrophy Society. Mrs. Frank Kuddell is to be asked to continue as a member of the Canadian Consumers. The president and secretary will attend the 7th dinner on May 12th. Mrs. Cliff Hunter reported the District Annual to be held in Louisville on May 24th. Mrs. Bob Alexander is in charge of the program.

Just a few notes this week as we are a little pushed for time. Fortunately Mrs. Heuley, the Auxiliary secretary, comes to the rescue with a report on the Auxiliary.

AUXILIARY NOTES

The Ladies Auxiliary held their general meeting Thursday evening last, April 21st. There were 20 present. On May 12th the ladies will attend a zone rally at Acton. A bus will leave the Legion Hall at 7:30 sharp. A euchre is being planned by the ladies in aid of the hospital fund, and more details will be given at a later date. The annual convention of the Auxiliary is being held in September in Windsor, and Mrs. James Emerson, president, and Mrs. John Henley, secretary, will attend and represent Branch 120 Auxiliary. The annual birthday supper will be held in September, tentatively Sept. 13th or 22nd. Next general meeting will be held at 7 p.m. so that ladies may accept an invitation from Milton branch to a social evening the date is May 19th.

There are two members of the Auxiliary, Mrs. James Murphy in St. Joseph's Hospital, in Guelph and Mrs. McMurdin in South Peel Hospital at Cooksville.

The cannibal chief poked his finger. "What was your job before you captured me?" he asked the captive. "I was an assistant editor." "You're in for a promotion!" chuckled the chief. "Soon you will be editor in chief."

BALLIMAFAD

Easter Euchre, Dance Held in Stewarttown

Quite a large crowd enjoyed the Easter holiday euchre and dance at Stewarttown Hall on Tuesday night, sponsored by the Ballinafad Institute. Doris Hull's orchestra provided the music for dancing and there were 27 tables of euchre, the prizes going to Mrs. R. L. Davidson, Acton; Miss Luena Campbell, Georgetown; Mr. Wickson and Mrs. Robin Richardson, who played as a man, both from Norval. Travelling prizes were won by Mrs. Francis Thompson, Stewarttown; Miss Bertha Keutner, Acton; Mr. Gordon Wingfield, Hornby and Mrs. Robert Cunningham, Georgetown as a man. Lucky dance prizes were won by Mary and Willie Hilly, Stewarttown; Ruth Street and Lynda Hartley. Lunch was served and a good time was had by all.

Mrs. Perry White was hostess to Evening Auxiliary in April. Ten members answered roll call with an Easter song. Mrs. Alex Van Horn had devotional using the Easter story for her theme. Mrs. Mike Norton gave a prayer on temperance, also Mrs. Archie Law read an article on new church group for women. Plans were made for the Thankoffering service on the 24th at which Rev. G. A. Moore of Rockwood would be showing slides on Africa. Mrs. F. J. Shortill in charge of the topic showed a film on the Resurrection. Mrs. Jesse McHenry and Mrs. Alex Van Horn assisted the hostess during the social hour.

Many from this community attended the fiftieth wedding anniversary party of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Allan at their home in Erin last Saturday afternoon and evening. Mission Band was held on Sunday morning with Mrs. Leo Jamieson and Mrs. J. McHenry as leaders in charge. The CGIT met also for their regular meeting on Monday night and on Sunday evening both of these junior groups took part in the program at the annual spring thankoffering. The worship service was conducted by two members of the Evening Auxiliary, Mrs. Norton and Mrs. E. Snow. Mrs. B. Hillis, president of the Afternoon Auxiliary read an article on stewardship and introduced the speaker, Rev. G. A. B. Moore of Rockwood, who showed the film 'Angels Awake' and commented on the missionary work in Africa. The evening concluded with the singing of the hymn, 'From every stormy wind that blows' along with a group of African singing people on a tape recording. Mr. Melville pronounced the benediction.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. Thos. Mack were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Craig and Donnie of Brampton. Mr. and Mrs. Eric Smith, Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mack and Tommy of Guelph.

At the Institute euchre on Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Law, the prize winners were Mrs. R. McKenry, Mr. Art Wilbitts, high score, and Mrs. R. B. Kirkwood the lowest. A door prize was won by Mrs. George Edmunds.

Retired Railwayman Had Local Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Heslop were called to Enfield last week by the death of their brother-in-law, Albert Tibbles. His wife, Mabel Carey, is Mrs. Heslop's sister.

Mr. Tibbles, who died in Sunnyside Hospital, Toronto, was a railway engineer, retiring three years ago from his duties with the Ontario Northland Railway. He was born in England, and served overseas in the First Great War with the Canadian forces.

Mr. Tibbles' home was one of the few in Enfield which escaped the disastrous Hawley bus fire in the twenties which led to Enfield's destruction. He leaves his wife, three children, and six grandchildren.
