Bill Kelly Awarded Best Actor Honours

Bill Kelly was awarded the Best Actor award at the Junior Farmer Provincial Drama Festival. Bill played the leading role in Halton's entry, presented by the Pelee Island Junior Farmers. Pelees, Harold Bruce and Victoria, Ontario, took part in the final competition held in War Memorial Hall, Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph on Friday April 22nd.

Bill Kelly was awarded the Howard trophy for the Best Actor in the Drama Festival. Miss Dorothy Hutchinson of Pelee County received the Howard trophy for the best actress.

Pelee County was awarded the Osborne Shield for the group receiving the highest number of points. The Pelee County play was "The Long Christmas Dinner", written by Thornton Wilder.

Halton's entry was "Poor Andrew", written by George Kelly. The cast included Barbara Buzza, Virginia McEwan, Phyllis Murray and Bill Kelly. The play was directed by Mrs. Evelyn Oates.

The Junior Farmer Drama Festival has been established for some time, however in recent years there has been an increasing interest in the programme. In 1959 it was necessary to hold zone semi-finals. This year's programme had a record number of countries taking part.

The adjudicator for the Provincial Finals was Mr. A. A. number of points. The Pelee

Glen Williams' Bridal Pair Will Live at Milford, Ont.

A couple who will live at Milford, Ontario, were married on April 24th in St. Alban's Anglican Church, Glen Williams.

Rev. John Rathbone officiated at the marriage of Marilyn Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myrtle Reed, Glen Williams and George Peter Rand, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rand, Milford. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Reg Williams.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white net over satin, sequin trimmed and with a pearl necklace. She wore a hair of pearl sequins and carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Linda White, Norval, was bridesmaid. She wore a ballerina gown of blue tulle over satin with a open blue feather overcoat. She carried pink carnations. The bride's sister, Melaine was flower girl, gown of pink tulle, white accessories and carrying a nosegay of pink and blue carnations.

Brydon Sockell, Brampton was groomsmen and others were Tom Ross, Norval and Bob Twiss, Brampton.

Receiving afterwards in St. Alban's parish hall the bride's mother wore a green lined sheath with pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother, who assisted in receiving, wore a blue figured dress, white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Three grandmothers of the bride and groom were among guests at the wedding.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip, the bride wore a pale blue suit, beige accessories and orchid corsage. Guests attended the wedding from Galt, Pelee, Brampton, Norval, Ingersoll, and Milford.

Korean Conditions Are Shown in Film

A film "Of Such is the Kingdom" showing present day conditions in Korea, was a feature of the April meeting of the Evening Auxiliary of St. John's United. It was a supper meeting held in the ladies parlour of the church on Easter Monday.

Mrs. W. N. Brownridge, an honoured guest, and twenty-seven members enjoyed a delicious meal served by the hostesses of the evening, Miss Isabel Dolson, Mrs. Duncan MacMillan, Mrs. Jack Bailey, Mrs. Bert Allen and Mrs. Douglas Latimer.

Two musical numbers by members, solo by Mrs. Gordon Padfield and a double duet by Misses Isabel Dolson, Faith Leary, Mrs. Jack Bailey and Mrs. Howard Wrigglesworth were much enjoyed.

The devotional period, conducted by Mrs. O. M. Brewster was based on the scripture passages from Matthew 27, verses 11-25. Mrs. Donald Fisher led in prayer. The meeting closed with a vote of thanks by Mrs. Earl Lince to those who had helped to make the evening enjoyable.
